Burglars Get $966 In Daylight Robberies

Six City Homes Looted

Jewelry Taken, Owners Away

A wave of daylight burglaries netted at least $966 in cash, jewelry and other property for thieves yesterday in apartments on or near Bowman and West Fourth streets.

Police said the burglaries were a part of the thievery which has swept the city in the past two months.

Yesterday's burglaries of six apartments occurred in the Chalfern apartments, southeast corner of West Fourth and Bowman streets and in the Washington apartments, directly south of the Chalfern apartments on Bowman street. All apartments, police said, were entered by prying the moulding off the night lock and forcing the lock.

Thieves got at least $891 in money, jewelry and other property from two apartments at 74 Bowman street, occupied by Nick Carson and Gerald E. Downs. Two other apartments also were ransacked but police were unable to determine what had been taken since the occupants were on vacation.

The Carson apartment was robbed of $375 in cash and $475 worth of jewelry. Carson told officers he was away from his home from 7:20 a. m. to 12:20 p. m. Downs, who said he was gone about the same interval, reported that $41.40 had been taken from his dresser drawer and from a piggy bank in the kitchen.

OWNERS AWAY

The two other apartments entered are rented by Fred Brumfield and James E. Wright, both on vacation.

Of the two residences entered in the Chalfern apartments, $75 in cash was reported missing from the apartment of Miss Betty Davis, 195 West Fourth. Miss Davis said she was gone from her apartment from 7:15 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. The other apartment, rented by Miss Elizabeth Faust, was entered by the same method but police were unable to determine if anything was taken since Miss Faust is out of the city.

Sunday, thieves got $568 from cars parked near St. Peter's Catholic church. Police records show that more than $2,000 in clothing and other personal property has been stolen from parked cars since June 1.

Meanwhile, police said that local business men have been more "careless" about their establishments in July than in any previous month, making it easier for burglars to enter.

Officers said routine patrols of the business places last month found 40 more windows open than during June. Forty-nine more night lights were either burned out or turned off last month than in the month before, the report also showed.

Four suitcases of clothes found yesterday by county highway workers in a creek under the Hanley road bridge on State Route 13 are believed to belong to two persons whose cars were entered Sunday while they were at St. Peter's Catholic church, police said.

Backs Arms Aid Plan

WASHINGTON — (AP) — W. Averell Harriman, the Marshall plan's roving ambassador in Europe, today urged Congress to approve the administration's foreign arms program promptly "to protect the growing generation from war."

Harriman made the appeal in testimony before the House foreign affairs committee.

As he testified, Secretary of State Dean Acheson went into a huddle behind closed doors with members of the Senate armed services and foreign relations committees.

This combined group is expected to open hearings soon — perhaps tomorrow — on the arms aid program.

Harriman told the House committee that "I earnestly believe we are winning the struggle for peace and freedom in Europe."

But, he emphasized, any delay in shipping arms to America's European allies would create doubts which might reverse this trend.

'Satira' Named In Suit

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Dancing Patricia "Satira" Schmidt of Toledo is in the limelight again.

The 24-year-old creator of exotic dances was named corespondent in a separate maintenance suit by a Cleveland housewife yesterday.

Mrs. Louise Ann Salupo, 34, mother of three children, said in a petition filed in common pleas court that her husband, Sebastian, 35, spent this last week-end with Miss Schmidt in Calumet City, Ill.

Last October, Miss Schmidt was released on a presidential pardon from the Guanabacoa Women's prison in Cuba after serving more than a year for killing her married lover, John Mee, Chicago attorney. The slaying occurred aboard Mee's yacht, "Satira," as it lay in Havana harbor.

DOESN'T KNOW HIM

Informed of the current court action, the black-haired "Satira" said she does not know Salupo and does not "recognize the name."

Mrs. Salupo's petition asked for "separate maintenance, custody of minor children, alimony, restraining orders and equitable relief." She did not ask for divorce.

The housewife charged her husband kept and maintained Miss Schmidt in hotels in cities including New Orleans, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis, Chicago, New York, and presently Calumet City. She said her husband, known as Alfred, was business agent for Local 152 of the AFL Laundry Workers union and an electrical workers' union in Cincinnati.

In her husband's apartment in Cincinnati, Mrs. Salupo said she found furs, gowns and other feminine apparel which did not belong to her. She said she found several glamorous portraits of Satira, including two in expensive gold frames. She visited the apartment while her husband was in Calumet City, she said.

Man Beats Young Girl

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Blonde and petite Erlene Brown, 19, of Milford was dragged from her bicycle and beaten yesterday by a 200-pound youth who fled in an old automobile when a former Indian Hill ranger (police officer) ran to her rescue.

The attack took place in the fashionable Indian Hill neighborhood and only about a mile from the girl's home.

William Lux, the former ranger, said he fired two shots at the fleeing automobile and believed he hit it both times.

Miss Brown was taken to our Lady of Mercy hospital at suburban Mariemont where it was found she had suffered head bruises and a possible fracture of the collar bone.

She said the curly - haired man, who wore a dirty handerchief over his face, knocked her down as she rode past him on her bicycle. Lux, enroute to the Indian Hill pistol range, saw the attack from his automobile and ran to the girl's rescue.

Public Kiss, Brawl Cost Hubby $10

GALESVILLE, Md. — (AP) — Because he was so vehement about his right to be kissed in public by his wife, Roy Miffleton, 31, of Washington is $10 poorer today.

Miffleton was fined that amount yesterday by trial Magistrate Norman Hazard after testimony at a hearing developed that quite a rumpus ensued following a wifely kiss on an outing Sunday to Mayo beach on Chesapeake Bay.

Mrs. Mary Trabing, wife of the resort owner, objected to such goings-on in public.

Miffleton objected to her objecting. Words flew hot and heavy. A crowd gathered. And then the police came.

At the trial, Judge Hazard said he wasn't fining Miffleton for publicly kissing his wife but for disorderly conduct afterward.

See Polio Cases On Upswing

1948 Figures Now Doubled

(By Associated Press)

Infantile paralysis cases showed a sharp increase in some states in the last week, boosting the nation's total far ahead of 1948, a near record year.

The number of polio deaths for the first seven months of 1949, an Associated Press survey showed, is about double the total up to Aug. 1, 1948.

The survey showed approximately 8,000 cases and 442 deaths. However, data on fatalities was sketchy and incomplete in some states on the number of cases.

Many communities, fearing epidemics in the heavy polio months of August and September already have taken emergency measures. State health officials and leaders of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis are taking all precautions to prevent the outbreak or spread of the disease.

SECOND HIGHEST

The 27,680 polio cases reported in 1948 were the second highest of record but up to Aug. 1, 1948, the total was under 5,000. The worst polio year was 1916 when about 30,000 cases were reported.

Increases in the number of cases over last week's figures were reported in New York, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin. The 1,123 cases in Texas did not include the number stricken in the last week in July. Official figures for that period were not available.

New York state reported 482 cases, with 353 in the New York City metropolitan area, the largest number of cases in any big city. California reported 794 cases: Oklahoma, 498; Arkansas, 492; Illinois, 376; Michigan, 370; Minnesota, 362, and Indiana, 242.

Although some states reported incidence was light and below last year in several others, 22 states have reported 100 or more cases each to date.

Many areas said the polio situation is not considered alarming and is much better than last year. But health officials are taking precautionary measures to halt outbreaks during the next two months.

Notes Bare Symptoms

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Notes written by a young navy pilot stricken with polio — in the hopes he might help "find a cure for this thing" — have been released by his widow now that he is dead.

The pilot was James Olin Chiles, 25, junior grade lieutenant stationed at Anacostia naval air base. He was taken to Bethesda (Md) naval hospital a week ago with symptoms of polio.

Mrs. Chiles, 26, visited him last Wednesday when he was still able to talk. He told her: "Dorothy, this is the best thing that could happen. Maybe I can work with the doctors and find a cure for this thing."

A few hours later he wrote his

NEW "HOME" FOR BOOKIE—First day business was reported brisk yesterday afternoon at the Max Mosberg bookie in its new location above the Park Billiards in the Wappner building on South Park street. Among the gamblers in the police-ignored joint were approximately 15 women, for whom a powder room has been thoughtfully provided. The illegal bookie was moved Sunday from its former location at 12½ South Main street. White arrow indicates street level entrance to stairway leading to second floor rooms (black arrow) where horse race bets are taken.

'Nicer But Not Ritzy'

Bookie Moves To Wappner Building

By Staff Reporter

Max Mosberg has moved his bookie joint. The illegal horse bookie is now operating at 20 South Park street. Mosberg presumably moved from his old address at 12½ South Main street early Sunday.

The new bookie was doing a brisk business at his new address, over the Park Billiards, yesterday afternoon. There did not appear to be any crap game or other form of gambling going on in the new establishment.

Five weeks ago the move was rumored, but Mosberg continued to operate in the South Main street address until yesterday. On June 24, Mosberg denied knowing anything about transfering his bookie headquarters to the new address. A News-Journal story on that day predicted that Mosberg would consolidate his bookie joint and crap game, which operates in an upstairs room across Central Park on North Park street, into the new location on South Park street.

Reason for the move is presumably that the owner of the property at 12½ South Main street declined to permit gambling operations on the premises any longer.

Property owners are liable under the law for penalties in gambling convictions. The new location is in the Wappner building, owned by Willis Wappner.

Wappner's wife said he was out of town when a reporter called yesterday. She said she thought he was in Toledo. When questioned five weeks ago, Wappner said he was not leasing the property to Mosberg.

WOMEN PRESENT

The new bookie joint is cleaner and better lighted than the former one, but cannot be classed as ritzy. It contains a front office and betting window, partitioned

Moves To New Rooms

Prosecutor Takes Larger Quarters

The Richland county prosecutor's office was moved yesterday into new, larger and more expensive quarters, adjoining the old offices on the fourth floor of the Richland Trust building.

The new offices contain five rooms, including the reception room. Prosecutor Harold Lutz said one of the smaller rooms permits the setting up of a library. The old quarters had three rooms.

The new rooms have a monthly rental of $117.48. The old offices cost the county $95.15 per month. Electricity is extra.

The new offices were vacated by Anderson, Will and O'Donnell, who moved into the offices occupied by Attorneys R. E. Hutchison and Marshall C. Moore. Attorney Hutchison has moved his office to his home and Attorney Moore has taken another office at the same building.

Confer On 'Phone Rates

City Officials Go To Columbus

Four Mansfield city officials went to Columbus today to meet with State Public Utilities commission members on the proposed Mansfield Telephone company rate increases.

Service - Safety Director Earl T. Garrison, City Solicitor C. J. Kalbfleisch and Councilmen Harry M. Bowman and Nelson Swihart left for Columbus at 10 a. m. to confer with PUCO members about the telephone company's application.

A report of the meeting will be made to city council Wednesday night, Kalbfleisch said.

City council has went on record as opposing any telephone rate increase. Kalbfleisch said he would recommend the city hire a rate expert to study the application for an increase and present the city's case to the PUCO.

The telephone company filed its application for an increase with the PUCO on June 6. The application now is under study by the commission.

An open public hearing will be held before final action is taken on the application, PUCO officials stated.

Truman Formally Nominates Clark

WASHINGTON — (INS) — President Truman today formally nominated Attorney General Tom C. Clark to be an associate justice of the Supreme Court and Sen. J. Howard McGrath to succeed Clark in the cabinet post.

Mr. Truman sent the nominations of Clark and McGrath to the Senate, where leaders of both parties have predicted prompt confirmation, perhaps without even a show of opposition.

Blame 'Cat For Loss of Bull's Tail

GREEN SPRINGS—A mysterious animal with a taste for bulls' tails was being hunted down today by farmers in this area.

Tracks of the elusive animal, believed to be a bobcat, have been found in both Seneca and Wyandot counties but no one has encountered it at close range.

The latest bull to have its tail chewed off was on the farm of Frank Bock near here.

1,500 Lock In Battle With Police

Dock Strikers Start Melee

SIDNEY, Australia — (UP) — Fifteen hundred dock workers fought for 30 minutes with 200 police in the heart of Sydney's shopping section today during a one - day strike demonstration against shipping companies.

The battle, which at one time broke down into 12 separate group fights, occurred shortly after noon when police attempted to halt the strikers from marching on an arbitration court.

No one was injured seriously but scores of police and hystrical women shoppers were knocked down, scratched, punched and beaten in the melee, described as one of the worst labor outbreaks in Australian history.

The major battle occurred on busy King street during the noon rush hour. Fifteen men and one woman were arrested.

The chain of events started when shipping companies applied to an arbitration court to eliminate "appearance money" for wharf workers, apparently as a result of losses from Australia's six-weeks-old coal strike.

"Appearance money" is paid to wharf workers who show up at hiring halls each morning, even though they are not called for duty.

Four thousand wharf workers voted to strike for one day against the company's efforts to eliminate the showup bonus. Fifteen hundred gathered at the docks this morning and marched eight abreast toward the arbitration court.

The battle continued for 30 minutes before police broke up the demonstration.

More Cool Days Seen

More cool air was scheduled to move into Mansfield today to help keep temperatures pleasant for the next three days.

Forecaster A. S. Klemetsmo at Cleveland said temperatures would range between 85 and 90 degrees throughout most of the state today with slightly lower readings in the extreme northwest. The mercury stood at 77 at noon today. Yesterday's high was 78 at 5 p. m.

Thundershowers, accompanying the cool air masss, will hit at scattered points and continue throughout the night. Wednesday's temperatures are expected to range between 78 and 85 degrees.

The five-day forecast for Ohio: Showers in east and central portions Wednesday and again about Saturday. A little cooler Wednesday and somewhat warmer by Friday. Temperature will average near normal. Total precipitation one-third to one-half inch.

Lover Shoots Married Coed

BERKELEY, CAL., — (UP) — A University of California coed fought for her life today after being shot by her wealthy Iranian lover because she planned to return to her estranged husband.

Pariz Daryoush, 27, son of a prominent journalist at Meshed, Iran, admitted firing a single bullet into Mrs. Judith Korb Sher, 22, when she agreed to a "trial" vacation with her husband, Samuel Alexis Sher, 26, a graduate student.

"She kept changing her mind and I couldn't stand it," Daryoush sobbed to detectives.

Would Up Aid To Disabled

Bill Passes Without Debate

WASHINGTON — (AP) — An annual increase of $112,000,000 in veterans pensions and disability payments was voted today by the House.

The bill was passed without opposition or debate and was sent to the Senate.

It would hike disability compensation for veterans of all wars, raise allowances for dependents, and liberalize regulations governing determination of service-connected disabilities for World War I veterans.

The Veterans' Administration estimated cost for the first year would be $112,597,300. It made no estimate of the cost in subsequent years.

INCREASE COMPENSATION

1. Provide for payment of full compensation, instead of the present 75 per cent, to World War I veterans for disabilities legally presumed to be service-connected. Estimated first-year cost, $4,691,000.

2. Liberalize the compensation schedule of any veterans suffering from tuberculosis by continuing compensation for a limited time after the disease has been arrested. Estimated cost, $700,000.

3. Increase disability and death compensation rates and basic rates for service-connected disability. Total disability rates would be hiked from $138 to $150 a month, with corresponding raises for partial disability.

Increase the monthly payments to widows and dependent children of war-time casualities, from $100 a month for a widow with one child to $105, plus $25 for each additional child instead of the present $15.

4. Extend additional compensation benefits to dependents of veterans with a 50 per cent service-connected disability.

The present schedule provides payments only if the disability is 60 per cent service-connected. Estimated cost, $15,406,300.

Jet Plans Disclosed

GRAFENWOEHR, Germany—(UP) — The United States soon will base an all-jet air striking force in Germany and will maintain its ground forces at present strength "ready for any emergency," the visiting U. S. chiefs of staff disclosed today.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vanderberg, air chief of staff, and Gen. Omar N. Bradley, army chief of staff, told newsmen here that there will be no cutback in the air and ground forces with which America will back up its commitments in Europe under the Atlantic treaty.

The only exception, Vandenberg said, will be the Berlin airlift. That is being scaled down gradually now that the Soviet blockade of western land and water routes to Berlin has been lifted.

Vandenberg said the recently regrouped fighter force in Germany soon will be entirely equipped with jet planes. He said the propeller - driven Thunderbolts, which were America's first-line fighters at the end of World War II, are being retired.

The two generals talked with newsmen after reviewing with Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, chief of naval operations, the greatest post - war display of American military might in Germany.

Youth Saved From River

COLUMBIA, S. C. — (AP) — Two city firemen early today rescued a 21-year-old man from the perilous rocky perch he had occupied in the middle of the swirling broad river for 11 hours.

The firemen brought Robert Monroe Lee to safety in a fire department outboard motor boat after a risky quarter of a mile round-trip run.

Board President Calls For Bond Issue Vote

Rinehart To Quit Fair Post, Raps Lack of Cooperation

Lewis L. Rinehart announced today he would retire as county fair board president in January because he has had no cooperation from Richland countians in the board's attempts to revive the county fair.

At the same time Rinehart called for a public vote on a bond issue or tax levy to finance a senior fair. He said voters should be given a chance to decide whether they want a fair.

Rinehart, who lives in Sandusky township, has been president of the fair board three years. He said he would not seek re-election when his term expires in January but he would continue to serve on the board if elected.

Rinehart said he had remained a member of the Fairboard for 15 years because he wanted to do what he could for the 740 boys and girls participating in the county's 4-H club program.

He said it was a shame that a county as rich as Richland count not afford a senior fair for the older 4-H members to exhibit their work. Senior 4-H members cannot exhibit at the junior fair.

He added that he felt that perhaps someone else as president might be able to get the cooperation that he has been unable to get.

"I've tried hard," he added, "but I've received no response from organizations and the people of Richland county."

Rinehart said some people say a fair costs too much, but operating a juvenile court costs money, too. He said a 4-H boy or girl has never appeared in juvenile court "because they don't have time to get into mischief."

The board, he added, is doing all it can with limited funds to remedy the faults found by the state fire marshall's office at the fairgournds.

"But we can't go out on a limb and spend more money than is available, he said.

Rinehart said the committees at work on the various repair projects were "doing everything possible to get the fairgournds in line for the junior fair." He said the buildings and grounds "should be in first-class shape" in time for the fair."

New York Heat Provides Unusual Variation On Pavement Egg-Frying

NEW YORK—The big news today is—"it's cooler."

Those two magic words were of more interest along the heat-hit eastern seaboard than the standings of the major league baseball teams or the question of arming friendly nations under the Atlantic pact.

"It's cooler!"

Everybody said it—and everybody felt it. Everybody was on relief—on relief from the weather. And glad to be!

Because the weather has been on every mind all summer long. It's had everybody by the throat—gasping, here in this Hades-by-the-Hudson.

Never in history has so much humanity been wedded to so much humidity, nor longed so hard for a divorce. The month of July was the hottest ever recorded here, but the heat started long before that. Since the first of January the weather bureau reports that metropolitan New York has had a temperature excess of 1,043 degrees above normal.

When you have 1,043 degrees above normal there are only two things the average citizen can do about them. That is to feel them—and to complain about them.

The heat wave has had more impact on Mr. New Yorker than the ten-cent subway fare. But even the chamber of commerce is tired of admitting that "we have more of everything than anybody—including more weather."

SANDALS FOR PIGEONS

Out in Phoenix, Ariz., or Kansas city, Mo., boastful denizens sometimes prove how hot it gets there by frying an egg on the street.

That is unnecessary braggadocio here. You simply break the egg on your forehead, and by the time it rolls down to your mouth it has been poached in the perspiration. The streets have been so searing that even the pigeons refuse to land on them until two hours after sundown. There is a movement underway to get the ASPCA to equip them with sandals.

The weather has played all kinds of strange pranks on people. We will leave out the fellow in Washington, D. C., who stole 36 gallons of anti-freeze solution.

At the beach you can't see the sands from the people.

The refrigerated movie palaces have done a thriving business. Some folks have simply moved into them for the duration. As one captain-of-ushers put it: "We don't mind them bringing box lunches so much, but washing their nylon shirts in the men's room—that's going too far."

Along 51st street — the poor man's glamor lane—they tell of a heat - desperate patron who pulled out a pistol and told a bartender trying to close the joint at 4 a. m.:

"It's all right if you want to go home, but I'm staying here. And you're going to leave the air-conditioning on, too."

Well, there's a mass of cool air from Canada here now, the most welcome thing that's come to town since Jenny Lind. And Mayor Bill O'Dwyer had better keep it here—or the Democrats are going to have a tough election in autumn.

CAMPER—John Evans, 10, of 510 West Townview circle, was the only Mansfield boy to register for the last period at YMCA Camp Nelson Dodd near Brinkhaven. Mrs. A. R. Deiss, wife of the camp director, signs him up while Deiss looks on.

Post Office Receipts Set Record

Reach New High For July At $46,299

Mansfield postal receipts touched a new high for July last month at $46,299.

While the month's total was about $4,000 under June, it represented an increase of $4,066 over July a year ago, Postmaster Curtis L. Ford said.

Receipts totaled $379,007 for the first seven months of this year, an increase of $50,897 over the corresponding months of 1948, Ford reported.

Meanwhile, Mansfield bank clearings last month dipped below July, 1948, and June of this year.

The Clearing House association reported the city's four banks handled $18,235,317 last month, about $200,000 under the June figure. The banks cleared $23,355,152 in July, 1948.

For the first seven months, bank clearings totaled 134,337,178 while for the same period last year the clearings amounted to $142,968,239.

Budget Cut In Ashland

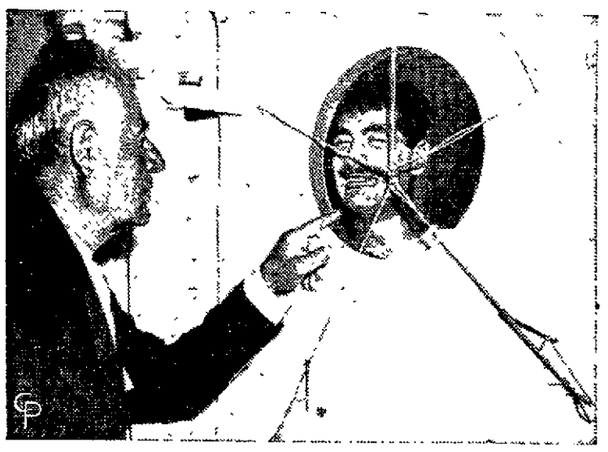
ASHLAND — A budget estimating municipal expenditures at $199,761 for 1950 was approved by council last night. It was presented by Thomas Withers, city auditor, who reported 1949 estimated expenditures at $209,588.

Council was told the estimated balance in the general fund for Jan., 1950 will be $8,798 and it will shrink to $1,105 by 1951 under the pro-rated basis now in use. Additional funds will be added, Withers said.

A .5 mill levy for recreational purposes and improvements was adopted in a resolution as council took measures to continue operation of 42-acre Brookside park. Voters here last fall turned down a levy that included that amount to aid the municipal park system.

It was part of a levy that offered financial aid to street improvements and failed to pass. The original park levy expired last year and efforts have been made to replenish the park fund.

George Saddich (arrow) trussed up as lifeboat is hauled aboard. In straitjacker, Saddich weeps as he looks through a porthole of ship's brig. His father, Haleem, tries to comfort him.



GOES BERSERK AT SEA—Liner Italia arrived in New York with one passenger confined in a straitjacket. He was George Saddich, 22-year-old war veteran who went berserk in mid-Atlantic, began tossing overboard everything he could lift. He climaxed the shennanigans by leaping overboard himself. Lifeboat crew had to tie him to get him back aboard, and he spent the rest of the voyage in the Italia's brig.

Realtors To Aid Search

Bar Committee Asks Action

The building committee of the Richland County Bar association will seek the aid of the Mansfield Real Estate board and individual realtors in finding a suitable juvenile detention home.

Attorney George W. Biddle, committee chairman, said letters were being sent out and his committee also solicits help from the public.

The committee took the action yesterday following a report of the state fire marshal's office that two frame buildings, under consideration by the Volunteers of America, were ruled out as unsafe.

The Volunteers have offered to operate a detention home for the county.

Biddle said the need for a detention home "is urgent and must be solved very quickly."

What is required, Biddle said, is a brick house, large enough to house six boys and three girls, which is the maximum ever detained, according to past experience.

MONTHLY BASIS

The house would be leased on a monthly rental basis. Biddle also suggested that there might be couples living in such a shouse who would rent it and act as superintendent and matron.

His committee has several places in mind, but seeks aid in order to carry out a complete canvass of possible sites. In this way, he said, the best and most economical site can be brought to the attention of the county commissioners.

He pointed out that his committee was acting to assist the commissioners and that the results of the survey would be turned over to them.

The county commissioners are required by law to furnish a detention home. Juvenile Judge Stuart H. Cramer is required to provide the personnel. However, the judge's efforts to get the commissioners to obtain a home have met with no success. Children, meantime, are being held behind bars in the city and county jails.

Meeting with Biddle were Attorneys C. H. Huston and Glenn W. Marriott and Judge Cramer, all members of the committee.

Reporter of Old Days In Chicago Paid Off Scoop For Scoop—Faked

John Kelley was one of the classic police reporters in the heyday of wild Chicago journalism. His run included the South Clark Street dens of vice. They were in a slump, especially a big one owned by Tom Hanks. On a dull night, John solemnly composed a piece about a poor punk, down on his luck, who walked up to the green table there and whispered to the man with the little wooden hoe: "I've got five dollars. If I lose that, I'm going off a bridge." He shot and he faded—for 48 hours without sleep. When he left, he had won a fortune. Rich, he married the girl and bought a flat-building. The tale was a whizzer. Tom couldn't handle all the play that poured in.

"That was grand of you," he said to John. "You were a wonderful pal, doing that for me." John answered: "I didn't do it for you. I used your name because it's so well known." "Then—but why? No such thing happened and you know it." "Self defense — I did it to get even. Twice last week I was trimmed by two clean scoops — both fakes!"

TALE OF A BRIBE

One of the biggest businessmen in the East, who inherited (and multiplied) the family enterprises, told me a new one about a Chicago alderman.

When he was quite young, earning his spurs, he was sent out here to prepare for construction of a new plant on the West Side, to occupy some vacant land the company had bought. He was told, without trimmings, that before he could lay a brick he must "see" the council member from that ward. To him he said: "I don't like the property, I don't like the location, in truth I don't like the town. I don't want to build this thing. But if I must, I must." "That'll cost you 5,000 bucks. Get it up in cash."

"He wired for the money, came back, laid it on the line. Then he haunted City Hall and was stalled.

Weeks went by and no permit came forth. He returned to the alderman and complained: "I came through. Why didn't you do your part? Where's my permit?" "Permit? I thought you were kicking in so you WOULDN'T get one."

State To Fill OSR Post

Head To Be Named Before Jan. 1

Permanent appointment of a superintendent at Mansfield reformatory will be made before Jan. 1, 1950, State Welfare Director John H. Lamneck told the News-Journal today.

The position, technically still held by Arthur L. Glattke, is being filled by Acting Superintendent George J. Allarding. Glattke was granted a leave-of-absence on Feb. 1, of this year to become head of the Bureau of Correction in Columbus.

In a telephone conversation with the N-J yesterday, Lamneck said that "something will be done (about the appointment) before the first of the year" and that any change in the superintendency at the reformatory "will be up to Mr. Glattke."

According to law, the leave-of-absence may run for a full year, or until Feb. 1, 1950 before a new appointment is made. Meanwhile, Glattke can either return to his job as superintendent of the reformatory or surrender his position to a new appointee.

Allarding said he had received no word about an appointment from the welfare department.

HOUSE CLEANING—

The annual summer cleaning is under way at Senior high school. Glenn Rohleder, principal, said yesterday that every stationary seat has been removed and the floors scrubbed as clean as grandmother's kitchen. Although its vacation time for Mansfield schools, Rohleder and his office staff keep busy most of the time with correspondence and other routine office matters that have to be taken care of during the summer.

GETS RESULTS—

A story in The News-Journal Thursday that only seven men had signed up for "men's night" at the cancer clinic brought good results, according to Dr. Harry Wain, city - county health commissioner. Dr. Wain said 20 men had made appointments, filling all the vacancies. Others who wanted appointments were scheduled for the next clinic Aug. 30. The clinic is held at 6:30 p. m. on every fourth Tuesday. An appointment can be made by phoning the cancer clinic 2291-6.

Hired To Help In Relief Office

Mrs. Clotilda E. Burghard, wife of the Richland county Relief director, Harvey W. Burghard, has been hired by the county commissioners to work in the relief office for the balance of the summer on a part-time basis.

Commissioners said the employment was to permit vacations for other employes and because one of the other workers, Mrs. Ralph Schad, has taken a leave-of-absence beacuse of illness.

The job will pay $120 per month.

Warns of Health Threat To Infants

"Unless good infant hygiene is practiced in the Country Club allotment area there will be more deaths," Dr. Harry Wain, city-county health commissioner, said today after an investigation of the death of 22-day-old Lavon Grey Helmick.

City health department nurses discovered there had been other cases of the intestinal disease in the Helmick family. The child's mother, Mrs. Martin Helmick, was ill with the malady. Four babies have died in the Country Club allotment.

Dr. Wain stressed today the necessity for keeping infants away from ill persons and from crowds.

He said the water used in the babies' food must be boiled as well as the rubber nipples and bottles.

He cautioned parents that there must be "extreme cleanliness in handling the infants."

Health officials blamed open wells and lack of sanitation when score of residents of the suburban community northwest of the city became ill three weeks ago.

Health department nurses are visiting the area every day and will aid any of the families who wish with their health problems.

Truck Backs Into Child

Three - year - old Harold Eugee Cox jr., Mansfield R. D. 1, is in General hospital today, thoroughly convinced that a driveway is no place for little boys to play.

Shortly after 8 p. m. yesterday, the tot's father arrived home with the pick-up truck and drove in the driveway. Cox then backed the truck up a bit to park it.

All of a sudden there was a scream from behind. The truck's rear wheel had passed over the child's left leg. A frantic father rushed the child to the hospital.

Harold suffered a fractured left femur. Hospital attendants reported the boy's condition as "good".

Barrel Tosses Hope For Loop

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — There's an empty saddle out at Paramount studio today — and Bob Hope's the man who isn't in it.

Hope is in Hollywood Presbyterian hospital with a wrenched back suffered yesterday when he fell from a saddle while making a movie.

His steed was a wooden barrel, rocked by Lucile Ball as part of a gag sequence in the film. The fall knocked Hope out. His doctor said the comedian would remain abed several days.

Tells Senate To Probe 3

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Senate "five percenter" investigators today are mulling over suggestions by John Maragon that they look into activities of some high-ranking political figures.

The one-time familiar figure at the White House told an impromptu news conference that he urged an investigation of Henry F. Grady, American ambassador to Greece, and George Killion, former Democratic national treasurer.

Maragon specifically suggested a probe of the 1941 reorganization of the Dollar Steamship lines. Grady was named president of the line under a Maritime commission reorganization in 1941 and was succeeded by Killion in 1947.

U. S. Beauty Spurns Tiny Bathing Suits

NEW YORK — (AP) — None of those scanty French bathing outfits will ever reveal the charms of Miss America of 1948.

"They are not decent and I don't think American girls should wear them," says the 18-year-old beauty queen. Bebe Shopp of Hopkins, Minn. She left yesterday for Europe.

Paris and French shore resorts are among her ports of call, but if she makes any bathing suit appearances it will be U. S. style.

'Meanest Boys' Sought As Girl Finds Camera Missing

Police are looking for two of the "meanest boys in town."

So is 11-year-old Cleo Kasper, 281 Myers avenue, who isn't too happy about being a modern Red Riding Hood.

Yesterday, Cleo's mother, Mrs. Joe Kasper, sent her to her grandmother's to pick up the washing. Cleo's grandmother has been ill so Cleo took along her camera to show to the grandparent. Cleo was proud of that camera—she had saved the money for it by doing little jobs around the house.

Cleo and her grandmother had a nice chat and Cleo left with the washing. With the nickel the grandmother had given her, Cleo decided she'd buy a popsicle on the way home. She stopped at a Newman street store to make her purchase, leaving the washing and the camera outside.

When Cleo came out of the drug store, her camera was gone. Then she remembered that two boys were leaving the drug store when she entered. No one else had passed the store during the time she was gone from the camera, she told police.

Pair of Bears To Battle In Mat Feature

A couple of bears will share the limelight in this week's edition of the grunt and groan follies, Mansfield style.

Gus, the 300-pound black bear who made such a hit here last week, must share top billing with Ivan Rasputin, the self-styled Russian bear. The two bears will meet over the 30-minute route and will conclude the all-star show, Saturday at the Ashland road armory.

Last week, Gus proved too tough for George O'Hara, a mere 200-pounder. But Rasputin will carry 250 pounds into the ring and should give Gus quite a tussle. Gus had disposed of O'Hara in about four minutes.

Completing the cast are such characters as Frederich Von Schacht, the Milwaukee giant; Ronnie Etchison, one of the top junior heavyweights; Billy Fox, who doubles as trainer of Gus and Suni War Cloud, the full-blooded Indian.

Schacht, who stands 6-4 and weighs 260 pounds, takes on Etchison in the one-hour semi windup. War Cloud and Fox meet in a one-hour opener. Both bouts are two of three falls.

Tickets for the show are on sale at the City News.

Extend Season For Hunting

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The season for shooting of migratory waterfowl and coot in Ohio will be 10 days longer this year, Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug announced today.

The Ohio season for ducks, geese and coots will run from Oct. 21 to Nov. 29. The bag and possession limits for Ohio remain unchanged from last year, except for a reduction of the bag limit for coots from 15 to 10 per day. The Ohio season for rails and gallinules will be Sept. 1 to Oct. 30, but they may not be hunted after one hour before sunset during the waterfowl season. The woodcock season in Ohio will be Oct. 8 to Nov. 6.

Madison Team Wins Junior Loop Forfeit

The Madison team of the Central Ohio junior league racked up another victory yesterday when it won an forfeit from Lexington. Lexington failed to field a full team for a game on its home diamond.

Madison will go to Ashland tonight to make up a postponed game.

3 Mansfield Teams Play In Openers

The sixth district softball tournament will begin its two-week run at Gorman-Rupp field tonight with three games scheduled to inaugurate play.

American Veterans Committee, leaders of the Mansfield International Softball league, will have the honor of getting the program under way by taking the field at 7:15 p. m. Bucyrus Swan Rubber company will form the opposition.

A girls game between Mansfield Ohio Sport Center and Galion All-Steel will comprise the second contest at 8:30 while at 9:45 p. m. another men's tilt will pair Mansfield Tire and the Jeromesville Merchants.

Jeromesville is one of the two "town" teams entered in the meet. The other, Perrysville Pottery, will play Sons of Herman Thursday night.

Three games will be played every night this week and Monday and Tuesday of next week. Finals are set for Monday, August 15.

PROTEST PITCHER

Tournament Director Stan Kamen announced today that a protest has been filed regarding the eligibility of Ollie Barker, star pitcher of the Ashland Indians. The Ashland team is co-favorite for the title with Gorman-Rupp of Mansfield.

Kamen said that an official protest of Barker's eligibility had been made by J. C. Gorman of the G-R team. Gorman charged that Barker, who recently returned from Florida, had not been a resident of Ashland sufficient time to play in the tournament.

The tournament has cut the usually-heavy city softball program to three games today, two in the National league and a postponed Church league contest.

Feature contest will be between undefeated Westinghouse and likewise unbeaten 164th Fighter Squadron at Prospect park. Westinghouse has won four second-half games. 164th two Ideal Electric and Lumbermens meet in the other National loop game at Prospect. A scheduled contest between D. & M. Cigar and Mansfield Tire was postponed because of the tournament.

The Church league game pairs Four Square Gospel and First Presbyterian at North Lake park.

Flag Sitting May Be At End For Indian Fan

CLEVELAND — (INS) — Unless Indian - sitter Charley Lupica can think of something fast, his flag-pole sitting antics may end Saturday.

Cleveland attorney Charles H. Hubbell yesterday called for a subpoena on Lupica for his appearance in Cuyahoga county common pleas court Saturday in connection with a 15-year-old case.

Court authorities said the subpoena would be served today, via a climb to the poletop platform Lupica has occupied for the past 64 days while awaiting the Cleveland Indians' return to first place in the American league.

The court case involves a judgment obtained against Lewis A. Hanford of Cleveland in 1934 by the Cleveland Trust company. The bank has asked for a receiver on the judgment and Hubbell is seeking Charley as a witness for Hanford.

Neither Hanford or Lupica would admit previous knowledge of the other's existence last night, but Hubbell has promised to reveal the connection between the two "when we get Lupica into court."

Indiana to Try For Race Classic

INDIANAPOLIS — (AP) — The Indiana state fair is going to try to land the famed harness race classic, the Hambletonian, in 1951.

Orville Miller will take the Indiana bid before the Hambletonian society, which sponsors the event, in Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 11. Miller is speed superintendent of the Indiana state fair track.

The race has been run at Goshen since 1930. The race this year, on Aug. 10, carries a purse of $67,000.

Westbrook Golf Tourney Draws Record Field of 85

The largest field in history will compete in the 1949 Westbrook Country club match play tournament, Pro Tom Raklets announced today.

Eighty-five golfers will compete in the tournament, including 16 in the championship flight. Al Hager won the title last year and is favored to repeat. His toughest competition will come from Bob Moorhead, 1948 Richland county champion, Carl Wiseman, Dale Rose and Bill Black jr.

Sixteen golfers will make up the championship and second flights, 32 will play in the third flight and 21 in the fourth. Bob Carpenter, Lexington, paced the qualifying with a 73 while Vic Salter, Black, Pete Linster and Wiseman all had 76's.

Moorehead had a 78 and Rose 79.

Pairings announced today show many oddities. In the championship flight, Salter will meet his son Robert and brothers Owen and Jim Hegarty will collide. Dick Talmage meets his father, Henry, in the third flight first round.

Opening round pairings follow:

FIRST FLIGHT

Al Hager, defending champion, vs Dick Koozer (81); Dick Hosler (78) vs Bob Gordon (84); Bill Black jr (76) vs Bart Haley (83); George Gustin (80) vs. Jim Hoffman (84); Pete Linster (76) vs Gene Zediker (82); Rale Rose (79) vs Adam Brandt (84); Sandy Creveling (78) vs John Dugan (83); Bill Mercer (71) vs John Stevens (87); Bob Carpenter (73) vs. Mike Orr (82). Galion Junior Team Wins In Legion Meet

At noon Myron Bogan, commander of the American Legion Scarborough post, received word that Lorain, the team which had defeated Galion in the fifth district finals, had been disqualified and that Galion, new fifth district champions, was to play in the state tournament at Columbus at 4:30 p. m. yesterday afternoon.

Hasty preparations and frantic collection of players was made and at the appointed time the still-dazed players took to the field and defeated Toledo, 6-1. Bill Enders, the team's No. 2 pitcher, was on the mound with leading hurler and cleanup hitted Ray Seif on vacation in upper Michigan.

Galion was to meet Cleveland at 3:30 p. m. this afternoon and efforts were being made to fly Seif to Columbus in time for the contest.

Galion was undefeated in 13 straight games and had beaten Lorain once in the double-elimination tournament at Bellevue two weeks ago. Then on July 23, Galion lost a double-header to Lorain and was eliminated in the tourney finals.

Later, investigation disclosed Lorain had used ineligible players.

Other games today include: Akron vs. Urbana, Zanesville vs. Steubenville, Warren vs. Toledo, Cincinnati vs. Lima, Columbus vs. Ironton, and Lancaster vs Marion.

In other games yesterday, Columbus walloped Steubenville, 7-4; Cleveland beat Marion, 10-4; Lancaster whipped Akron, 14-3; Lima beat Zanesville, 11-1; Ironton trimmed Warren, 4-3, and Cincinnati overpowered Urbana, 13-1.

Old Timers Still Sore

GALION — The Old Timers baseball game which was played Sunday evening is still having its effect - mostly on the participants in the way of sore muscles.

Twenty-nine players were used during the five-inning game which ended with Stall's team victorious over Stoner's team by a score of 21 to 15. All players were over forty years old. Oldest oldster was 67-year-old Frank Northup.

Between 1,500 and 2,000 fans watched the contest and over $110 was collected to benefit the East Side Park.

Andy Zoll Loses

LAKESIDE — Dr. Andy Zoll, Mansfield tennis player, was eliminated by Robert Thompson, Youngstown, in the Northern Ohio net tourney here yesterday, 6-2, 6-3.

Loris and Jocha Tie For Lead In Moose Golf Loop

Nick Loris and Frank Jocha tied for medalist honors in the Moose golf league last night at Coolridge with a pair of one-over-par 35 scores. Loris had slightly the best day as his play included a hard-to-get match play victory over Joe Mayer.

Mayer was three over with 37 while Jim Musille was one stroke better with a 36. Ed Blonston posted 38. Mooshaven leads the league with 40 points, followed by Mooseheart, 39; Prelates, 38; Herders, 35; Managers, 31; Trustees, 30; Treasurers, 29; Junior Governors, 29; Secretaries, 24; and Governors, 23.

Indians Slate Player School

CLEVELAND — (AP) — The world champion Cleveland Indians sent out a general invitation yesterday to Ohio boys who want to play pro baseball.

Any Ohio boy who has been graduated from high school and is not a member of an American Legion team is eligible to attend the Tribe's four-day baseball school in Cleveland, beginning Aug. 17.

Hammerin' Hank Greenberg, the former Detroit slugger who directs the Indian's farm system, will be in charge of the school at League park.

Rally Gives Eagles Playoff Win, 7 To 3

The Eagles yesterday gained title to Mansfield's fourth berth in the Hot Stove league's Ohio junior baseball tournament which opens Friday in Wooster.

A four-run burst in the top half of the sixth inning gave the Eagles a 7-to-3 victory over the Odd Fellows in a special playoff at Liberty park. The two teams had been tied for second in the National (15 and 16 years of age) league with five wins and one defeat.

The Police Recreation club is the other entrant in the 15-16 bracket. Friday in Wooster, the Police meet Lorain while the Eagles will play Alliance No. 2. Competing in the 13-14-year bracket Friday will be Lumbermens and Ohio Sport Center. The latter club meets Wooster McIntire's and Lumbermens goes against Alliance No. 2. Games in the 15-16 division begin at 4 p. m. with the 13-14 contests listed at 4 p. m.

HOWELL IS WINNER

Lefty Jack Howell spaced five Odd Fellows singles and never was in serious trouble. He fanned seven and walked only two as his mates racked Jack Pleininger and Tim Nedrow for nine safeties.

Eagles opened the scoring with one in the first but the Odd Fellows went ahead with single runs in the second and fourth. Eagles scored a pair in the top of the fifth but the Odd Fellows immediately knotted the count to set the stage for the big four-run surge.

44 Candidates Try For Jobs On Pro Team

Forty-four candidates yesterday went through opening drills for the Mansfield Rangers pro football team.

Coaches Jimmy Lymper and Ed Stacco sent the squad through drills on fundamentals and conditioning at the Tappan field.

Heading the list of new candidates is Pete Risser, former Ashland high and Ohio university. Risser tips the scales at 190 and stands an even six-feet.

The squad now boasts two huge tackles. Stacco weighs 190 while Gene Goldsmith, Galion, who reported yesterday, hits 273 pounds and towers 4½ inches over six feet.

Other candidates reporting yesterday were: Ends — Robert Jones, 168; Herbert Douglas, 168, and Davis Carter, 165. Guards—John Kopchock, 210; Frank Zara, 206. Center—Frank Parrish, Galion, 175. Backs—Tom Carter, Crestline, 190; Reynold Bell, 165; Eugene Owens, 199, and Walker Willis, Cleveland East, 165.

Philadelphia A's Can't Even Hit Class B Pitching

HARRISBURG, Pa. — (INS) — The Philadelphia Athletics' inability to make runs is getting downright embarrassing.

The A's, shut out in their last three American league games with Detroit, were held to one hit and beaten, 1 to 0, by a class B rookie in an exhibition last night at Harrisburg.

A looping single by catcher Joe Astroth was the only hit off Art Wood, Cleveland Indian southpaw farmhand pitching for the Harrisburg Indians of the interstate league.

Wood walked five men but was aided by a triple play and two double plays by his mates.

Boston Sox Take Finale From Indians, 4-3

Boudreau Undecided On Starting Lineup

WASHINGTON — (AP) — There's going to be some changes made.

No one in command of Cleveland Indians lineup matters said anything specific after yesterday's 4-to-3 loss to the Boston Red Sox, but it's in the air.

Manager Lou Boudreau admitted he was uncertain what his starting lineup would be for the first of a three-game series with the Washington Senators, and added:

"I haven't had time to think it over."

The Tribe's right-handed batting power fizzled during the five game Boston series.

The Tribe won two of the games and the "Big Three" of Boudreau, Joe Gordon, and Ken Keltner collected only 12 hits in 58 attempts between them. They drove in only five runs and collected only three extra base hits.

Keltner, with one hit for 20 trips was the big disappointment. It's entirely possible Ray Boone may be reinstalled at short for the Washington series with Boudreau returning to third.

With the toughest half of the eastern trip behind them, the Tribe has a record of three wins and four losses. They trail the league-leading New York Yankees by 4½ games.

ONE WILL PITCH

Boudreau also was undecided about who to pitch in today's game with the Senators. Both Mike Garcia and Early Wynn are ready. Each has hurled excellent ball in recent appearances. Garcia has allowed only four runs in his last three games.

Slow-footed and unable to hit with men on, the Indians were meat for the Red Sox yesterday.

Mel Parnell allowed the Tribe nine hits in winning his fifteenth decision of the campaign. His teammates collected 10 blows from Bob Lemon, who dropped his sixth game.

Catcher Jim Hegan led the Tribe's offense with a home run and a single. He cracked the homer with none on in the fourth to give the Tribe a 3-to-0 lead.

Hegan's single and two others by Dale Mitchell and Boudreau combined with a throwing error by Dominick DiMaggio gave the Tribe a run in the third and left men on second and third with one out.

Parnell then passed Gordon to set up a possible double play. Larry Doby grounded to Doerr, who forced Gordon, Mitchell scoring. Keltner then took a third strike.

The Red Sox scored one in the third, two in the fourth and got the clincher in the seventh.

WINNING TALLY

With two out in the seventh, singles by DiMaggio, Johnny Pesky, and Ted Williams gave the Red Sox the winning marker.

The Tribe struck back in the eighth with singles by Mitchell and Gordon with one out. Doby ended the threat by grounding into a double play.

The double play was used effectively by the Bosox during the series. They collected eight twin killings to two for the Tribe.

Old Timers 9 Takes Third In 'Rec' League

The star-studded Old Timers softball team lengthened its Recreation league lead with a 12-2 conquest of the News-Journal nine last night.

It was the third straight victory for the Old Timers who now have a full game stranglehold on the league lead. News-Journal dropped to third with a 2-2 record while Leedy Electric won its second game in three starts to take over second.

Leedy's walloped the Coffee Shop, 27-4, with four home runs leading the attack. Anthony, and Kilgore each got one home run for Leedy's and Kithcart pounded out two. Mike Au hit a four-baser for Coffee Shop.

The Old Timers News-Journal contest was a lop-sided one from the start as the winners led 5-0 at the end of two innings. Shaull of the Old Timers had three hits in four times at bat. He and Dick McMullen both hit homers.

The other game went to Phi Sigma Chi, 4-2, over first-half champion Martin Steel. Martin's has now lost its only three starts in the second half. Bell homered for Phi Sigma Chi.

Westinghouse Gals Defeat Printzess In Softball Loop

Westinghouse was within one victory of the first half championship of the Girls' softball league following an 8-6 victory over Printzess last night at Prospect park.

Westinghouse now has racked up six straight victories without defeat but can yet be tied by Ohio Sport Center or Lumbermens. The season will end Thursday when Westinghouse and Lumbermens collide at North Lake park. Lumbermens had a 5-1 record while Ohio Sport Center has finished its schedule with 6-1.

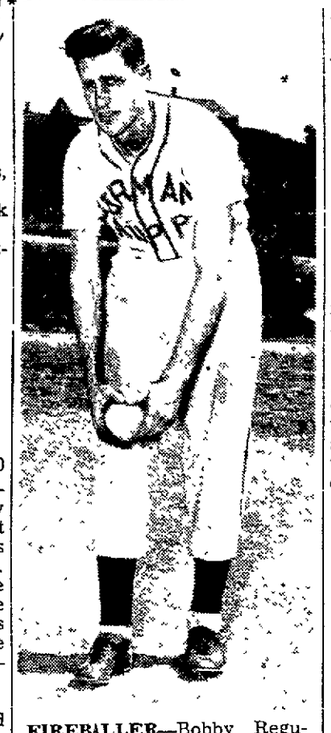
United States Track Team Takes Big Lead

HELSINKI — (AP) — United States athletes held a decisive lead over Finland today as their dual track and field meet entered its second and final day of competition.

The American stars had an advantage of seven victories in 11 events to work on after yesterday's opening program.

Colosal Wins

CHICAGO — (AP) — Colosal won the $23,550 Clang handicap with Delegate second and Carrara Marble third at Washington park yesterday.



FIREBALLER—Bobby Regula, star Gorman-Rupp tosser, is rated as one of the top pitchers who will compete in the sixth district softball tournament which opens tonight at the Gorman-Rupp field. Gorman-Rupp does not play until Saturday, meeting the winner of the Mansfield AVC-Bucyrus Swan Rubber game.

DAV Softball Nine Gets Tie For Loop Lead

The Disabled American Veterans tied Farm Tools for the American Softball league lead last night as they edged last-place Isaly Dairy, 4-3, at North Lake park.

Outhit nine to six, DAV bunched its bingles to sneak through to the victory. Isaly's trailed 4-2 going into the last of the seventh inning and had its rally stopped one run short.

Sauder led off the seventh for Isaly's by getting a life on an error. Bauer singled and Jim Miller followed with another bingle to drive in one run but Bauer was thrown out trying to take third. Al Beckler and Rowe then grounded out to end the game.

Isaly's had scored first in the game, taking a 1-0 margin in the first on two singles and a double. DAV tied the count on two hits and two infield outs in the second and took the lead with two runs in the top of the fourth. Bob Nickolaus walked to start that rally but was forced at second by Kunz. Mapes and Maloney followed with singles and an error aided in the rally.

DAV and Farm Tools each have two victories and no defeats in second half play.

Waitkus Wonders How Good He'll Be After Wound

"How good will I be after my bullet wound heals?"

The popular first baseman of the Philadelphia Phillies would like to play ball again this year if only for a few games. He wants to prove to his own satisfaction that the bullet wound inflicted by a love crazed girl in a Chicago hotel room hasn't dulled his ability as the best fielding first baseman in the National league.

He still has a drain in his back and visits the doctor several times a week for treatments. While his appetite has improved vastly, Waitkus hasn't gained much weight back. It looks like a slow, tedious trip back for the 28-year-old star.

The Phillies are counting heavily on Waitkus in their 1950 pennant plans. Club officials don't expect Eddie to play this year.

Skip-a-Long Wins

DETROIT — (AP) — Stanley Dollar's Skip-A-Long yesterday won the Harmsworth speedboat trophy in a runoff with Jack Schafer's Such Crust, which had to withdraw after the first of two scheduled laps.

Little DiMag Overlooked In Flag Drive—Almost

By STAN OPOTOWSKY

NEW YORK —(UP)— Unassuming, bespectacled Dom DiMaggio key-noted a quiet riot for the Boston Red Sox today, supplying an unspectacular but steady rain of hits in their inconspicuous climb to American league prominence.

Scant attention has been paid to the Red Sox since July 4th. On that day it seemed best to forget them, for they had lost eight in a row and seemed doomed to an even gloomier future.

On July 5, however, the Sox started their climb back into good graces, and today they can boast of having won 20 of their last 27 games, including a 4 to 3 victory over the frantically ambitious Cleveland Indians yesterday.

Much credit for this Sox surge has gone to the trio of lefty pitchers, Mel Parnell, Mickey McDermott and Chuck Stobbs. Yet here is a fact that cannot be overlooked: DiMaggio has hit safely at least once in each of those games. His consecutive streak is now 28, half of the record 56 set by brother Joe in 1941, and his batting average is a lusty .344.

Parnell won his 15th game of the season in that Cleveland meeting yesterday. It gave the Red Sox three games out of the five in the current Indian series, and lifted them to 2½ games out of second place and 7 out of first. Naturally, there was the usual—and justified— aclaim for Parnell's feat.

The headlines once again failed to mention Dependable Dom. But he was in there, to be sure. In the fifth inning he doubled in the run which cut Cleveland's lead to 3-2. And in the eighth he scored the winning run after hitting the first of three consecutive Boston singles.

DREWS IS WINNER

Lanky Karl Drews pitched an eight-hit game to give the St. Louis Browns a 2 to 0 night-time shutout over the Washington Senators. Bob Dillinger's three singles in four times at bat headed the 10-hit St. Louis attack.

Those were the only two games scheduled in the American league.

The Brooklyn Dodgers crawled to within half a game of the leading St. Louis Cardinals in the National. The Dodgers jumped to a 6-0 lead in the first inning for an eventual 9 to 0 triumph over the Pirates, while the Cardinals bowed to the Boston Braves, 8 to 1.

Ralph Branca scored his 12th win of the season for the Dodgers in pitching four-hit ball. A total of 14 Dodgers paraded to bat in that lusty first, and the first seven got on base safely.

Only Enos Slaughter's fourth-inning homer deprived Warren Spahn of a shutout as the Braves won. Bob Elliott's homer in the first and Ed Sauer's three-run homer in the third topped the 11-hit Brave attack.

The Giants rapped out 14 hits for an 11 to 3 win over the Cubs, their fourth win in a row. Bobby Thomson's triple, two doubles and a single in six tries was best for the victors.

Touring Americans Defeat Swedish Team

GOTEBERG, Sweden — (AP) — Touring Americans had another track and field conquest to their credit today with a Swedish squad their victims.

Of the six events staged here yesterday, the U. S. invaders won the 110 meter hurdles, pole vault, broad jump and 1,000 meter relay.

Rookie Flanker Shines For Browns

BOWLING GREEN — (AP) — William P. (Mac) McPeak, an end from the University of Pittsburgh, is the surprise of the first week of training by the all American pro football champion Cleveland Browns.

Coach Paul Brown said McPeak's smashing defensive play in the scrimmage session will cause "John Yonakor to hustle to hold his job as the team's defensive right end."

Al Hager Ties 9-Hole Record At Possum Run

Al Hager, the Westbrook par-buster who holds his home course record, added another mark to his list last night.

Hager tied the "outside nine" record at Possum Run with a five-under-par 31 card. Playing in the Tappan Stove league, Hager racked up five birdies and four pars as he did not once slip over regulation figures. He birdied the 11th, 12th, 15th, 16th, and 18th holes.

Hager holds the Westbrook record with a 65. Carl Kushin recently set the Possum Run 18-hole mark at 63 but the 31 on the outside is tied among a number of players.

Wilbur Linn with a 38 and Sandy Creveling with 39 were the only other Tappan golfers to break 40.

Receive Less Cash In Sales

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The cash value of livestock and livestock products sold by Ohio farmers in the first five months of 1949 dropped nearly $38.000,000 from the comparable months last year, a Department of Agriculture survey shows.

Increased value of farm crops sold in the same period compensated partly for the slump, reducing the net drop in cash income to about $31.000.000.

The combined income from livestock, livestock products and crops totaled $341,026.000, the survey showed, compared with $372.333.000 in those months a year ago. The total made Ohio the eighth ranking state in the middle west in point of farm income

TORCH STARTS FIRE

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Bucyrian Sues Gilead Driver

BUCYRUS — Robert M. Loren, of Mt. Gilead, is named defendant in a $25,000 action for damages filed in Crawford county, Common Pleas court here by Mrs. Ina A. Montgomery, Bucyrus.

Mrs. Montgomery alleges she was injured on Oct. 18, 1947 at a downtown intersection here when she was struck by Loren's car.

In her petition, the plaintiff alleges injury to her nervous system, contusions and abrasions of her legs, arms, shoulder and back. She claims she was confined in Bucyrus City hospital for more than two months following the accident and still is receiving medical care for her injuries.

Grocers In Lucas Finish 25th Year

LUCAS — Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McConnell last week completed their 25th year in the grocery business in Lucas.

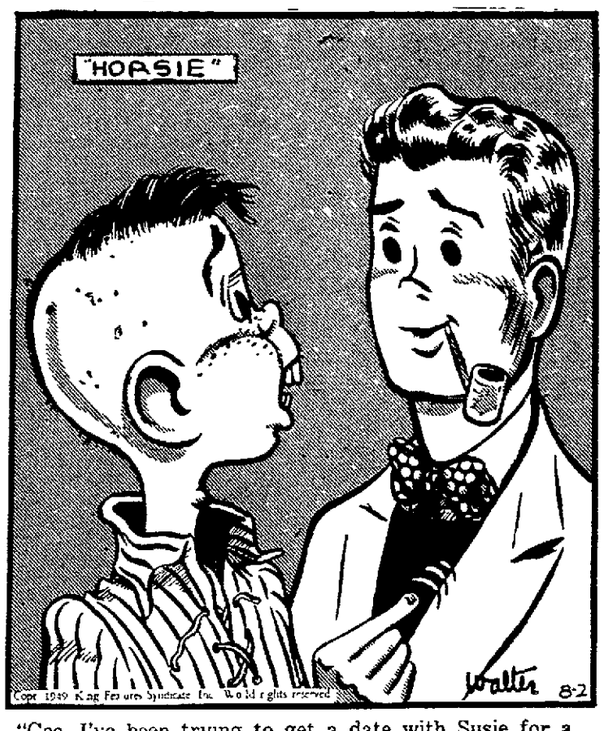
On July 27, 1924, they purchased the store of the late John Pregeb that was located in the Harris building on Union street here. After 10 years there, they moved their grocery business to their own building on Main street where it is today.

Flxible Coaches Use Tachometers

LOUDONVILLE — The Flxible company now is installing tachometers as standard equipment in all coaches. The tachometers take the place of the standard speedometer and indicates engine RPM and also shows miles per hour in third and fourth gears.

Shaded areas on the dial indicate when the coach is operating in the most efficient operating speed The instrument runs off the ignition system, thus eliminating some of the difficulties experienced with speedometer cables and adapters.

Susie Q. Smith . . . .



"Gee, I've been trying to get a date with Susie for a year. How did ya ever do it?"

Lucas Greets New Pastor

LUCAS — Rev. Wilbur S. Garner arrived this week from Los Angeles, Calif., to become the pastor of the Lucas Foursquare church. The church has been without a regular pastor since the resignation of Rev. R. W. Slater in May

Rev. and Mrs. Garner are graduates of L I F E College in Los Angeles. This is his first pastorate. They are the parents of a son, Charles, 7. The family is residing temporarily in an apartment in the church building.

Project Started

LOUDONVILLE — Zion Lutheran church is in the process of remodeling both the men's and women's rest rooms Estimated cost for both of them is $3,000 00. New rooms are to be built, one on each side of the church, and all new equipment for both

Shelby Mayor Authorized to Seek Bids for Depositories

Council Also Votes Street Resolutions

Repair Materials' Purchase Needed

By JOHN E. PATRICK
N-J State Correspondent

SHELBY — Council last night authorized Mayor William Morris as director of public service to advertise for bids for depositories for the city bond retirement account, the municipal light sinking fund, the municipal water sinking fund and for a public general depository.

The depositories are to act for a two-year period commencing with Aug. 23.

Council passed a resolution calling for the improvement by widening and grading of Glenwood drive between the intersection of Glenwood drive and Mansfield avenue.

A resolution also was passed calling for the improvement of Auburn street extended by the construction of concrete curbs and paving the street between the intersection of Close avenue and Auburn street and to include lots No. 2974 and No. 2975.

The mayor also was authorized to advertise for bids for materials for street and sewer repair.

Notes Bare Symptoms

first case note, in pencil in his personal notebook:

"To doctor

"First noticed vision incoherent or something at 1640 (4:40 p. m.) can't even see clearly what I'm writing.

"I f anybody puts me in a respirator please note: I cannot swallow. I have a rapid accumulation of mucous in my throat. I f I am not allowed to turn my head to the side to spit I'll choke to death."

His next brief note was an hour later:

"Doctor

"1753 (5:53 p. m.) noted very poor control of tongue in mouth."

Mrs. Chiles asked him h o w things were going, but he could only answer in a scrawl:

"My guess is that I'm going to be all right."

She asked if he were in pain. He replied by pencil:

"Some but not bad.

"Every person on this floor has a (word unreadable) contagious disease — don't want you around.

"Can't read — vision's s h o t temporarily.

"Only thing I'm worried about is you.

"Help me get pillow under head.

"You should not stay. This will be my worst night. Tomorrow we should know."

Mrs. Chiles asked if she could get him anything. He wrote:

"Doctor prescribes what I need."

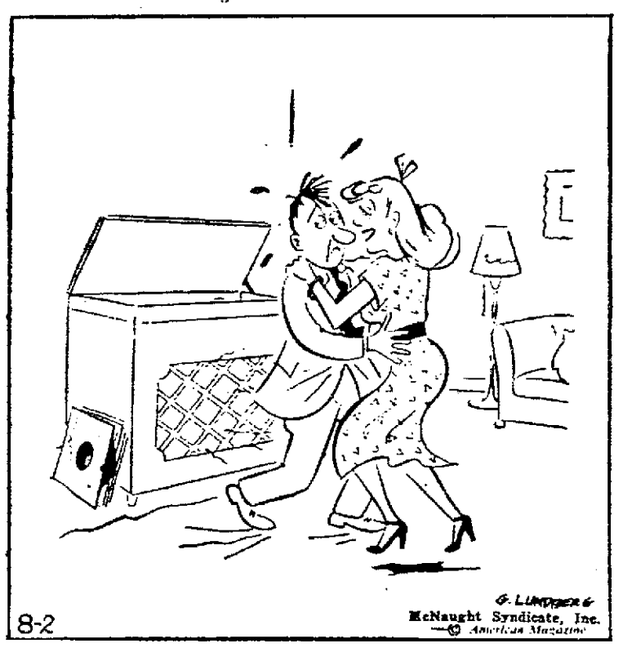
And then was the last note of all:

"My neck is paralyzed, doesn't hurt anymore."

That was about 8 p. m. Wednesday. Lieutenant Chiles died, of bulbar poliomyelitis, at 9:20 the next morning.

He was a native of Lakeland, Fla., who entered the Navy ... 1942 and spent three years overseas. His burial was today, in Arlington National cemetery.

This Funny World . . . .



"Don't you just love these long-playing records, Mr. Trout?"

Deaths In Area

Wilson Baker, Retired County Farmer, Carpenter, Dies At 66

SHELBY — Wilson E. Baker, 66, lifelong Richland county resident and a retired farmer and carpenter, died at 4:15 a. m. today in his home here at 47 Walnut street after a year's illness.

Mr. Baker was a member of the Evangelical and Reformed church and is survived by his widow, Minnie; a son, Donald of Shelby; two brothers, Burl of Jackson township and Lesley of near Shiloh, and a sister, Mrs. Sylvia Adams of Mansfield.

The body was removed to the Dye funeral home here. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Burial will be in Sullivan cemetery in charge of the Gilbert funeral home here. Friends may call at the family residence after 4 p. m. Wednesday.

$1 Sandwich Starts Brawl

COLUMBUS — (INS) — It just shows what inflation can lead to.

Leonard Harris, 22, got mad over being charged a buck for a chicken sandwich in the wee small hours of this morning and put an eight-inch-gash about 5 inches deep in the arm of Boyd McCoy, 33, doorman at an East Columbus night club.

McCoy promptly picked up a chair and very shortly Harris was being treated for a groin injury and having seven stitches put in his scalp. Sheriff's deputies picked him up at the hospital.

Mishap Delays Carnival Arrival

Despite an accident which delayed arrival of the Endy Bros. show train until this morning, the show will be open tonight at the Blue Goose lot, Special Agent Joe Rowan said.

A drawbar on one of the double-length cars in the 35-car train was pulled en route to Mansfield from Harrington, Del., and the wagons on the car had to be transferred to other cars.

Extra tractors were rented in Mansfield this morning to speed the unloading and setting-up operation.

Board Votes Tile Survey Aid Approval

Farmers In Crawford To Get Assistance

BUCYRUS — Tile survey assistance for four Crawford county farmers and soil conservation plans of five other county farmers have been approved by the Divide District Board of Supervisors here, H. G. McMichael, Bucyrus farmer and board chairman, announced today.

McMichael said tile survey assistance has been approved for the farms of Ralph Cover, Russell Lust, A. A. Ruffner and N. Sheaffer. The board also approved the conservation plans of Myron Sargel, C. A. Shifley, L. B. Bantzhoff, C. J. Fisher and Herbert E. Shifley.

Announcement was made that a field day will be held on the Ralph Warden farm, east of here, Sept. 14.

Tours will be conducted through Warden's farm and inspections will be made at nine sites, where recommended conservation practices are in effect. The practices will be explained by farm experts.

Ashland Boy Gets Fisher Guild Award

ASHLAND — William Thornhill, of Ashland, ws among 15 Ohio boys who won awards in the Fisher Body Craftman's guild competition sponsored by the Fisher Body division of General Motors corporation, it was announced Monday in Detroit. He received honorable mention in the junior division in Ohio.

Leading the list of winners was Howard Assell, of Canton, who also won highest honors in the Ohio-Michigan region. Assell, a state winner last year, will receive $150 and an expense paid trip to the national convention of the Craftsmen's guild in Detroit, Aug. 24-27.

Assell's sleek model car will compete with those of eight other regional winners. Eight university scholarships are offered as grand national awards.

2 Area Teachers En Route To Alaska For New Positions

By MRS. E. J. RICHARDS
N-J State Correspondent

NOVA—Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Richards, this week departed for Fort Yukon, Alaska, where they have accepted Territorial school teaching positions for the coming year.

Before leaving Ohio they visited his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Richards and departed yesterday from her mother's home in Celina.

The Richards will teach 30 children in the eight grades of the Territorial school. Fort Yukon is t e last large supply post and fur trading center in the Upper Yukon region. It is the last settlement north to Point Barrow on the Arctic ocean.

The village consists of general merchandise stores, cafes, dance halls, post office and a power plant which supplies electricity for the area and cold storage in summer months, a church and two schools. The other school is for native Indians. It is sponsored by the federal government and supervised by three women teachers.

TAUGHT IN AREA

Mrs. Richards graduated from Celina High school then attended Miami university. Upon graduating from Miami she taught elementary classes in College Corner, O. then last year taught the fifth grade in Montgomery school in Ashland county.

Richards graduated from Troy Rural High school in Nova and entered Navy Air Corps training at Miami university. He transferred to Central Michigan college to complete his training. Further training was completed at the Naval Air Stations in Glenview, Ill., and Ottawa, Iowa. Following his discharge he returned to Miami for his degree. Last year he taught in nearby Nankin school.

The Richards are motoring to Alaska and expect to complete the trip in four weeks. Their trip includes stops at Black Hills, Yellowstone National park, Glacier National park and other scenic points of interest along the Alcan highway.

"Don and Mickey", as they are known to the family and classmates, purchased a new light truck for the expedition. Besides holding all their luggage the vehicle affords night lodging. The trip will cover approximately 3,500 miles.

Upon reaching Fairbanks, Alaska, their land motor journey ends as they take a plane 200 miles to Fort Yukon, just 20 miles north of the Arctic Circle.

An announcement of their arrival and experiences encountered along the way will be publicized upon receipt of a letter from the travelers.

from the long room, where the entries and results at various tracks are posted on blackboards.

Mosberg has thoughtfully provided a "powder room" for his many women customers. There were about 50 persons in the place yesterday afternoon, about 15 were women.

The bookie joint had operated at the old address for more than 20 years, with only minor police interference. When Police Chief Jesse Schwab mysteriously lifted his gambling ban in April, 1948, with the obvious support of Mayor Roy W. Vaughn, Mosberg began to operate openly — both the bookie joint and crap games. Numbers rackets and poker games now also operate openly.

The new location is next door to the Crescent Cafe, 22 South Park street, which was bombed on July 5, 1948. Two city firemen and two policemen were injured in the bombing when they tried to place the bomb in a tub of water before it went off.

Despite official denials, rumors persisted at the time of the bombing that the motive was rivalry for control of the lucrative punchboard distribution business or to frighten away an out-of-town operator who planned to open a gambling establishment in the city.

There have been no arrests in the bombing and it remains a mystery more than a year afterwards.

Glander Charges Ohio Will Lose $8,000,000 In Taxes

Reports 33 Workers Discharged

Hits At Lack Of Appropriations

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Ohio will lose between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000 in tax revenue because of lack of funds for the department of taxation, the tax commissioner predicted today.

In a long and bitter report to Gov. Frank J. Lausche, tax commissioner C. Emory Glander announced the discharge of 33 employes of his department "because of inadequate appropriations."

Reviewing slashes in funds for his department, Glander wrote:

"At the very time when revenues are beginning to decline and when special efforts should be made to avoid new taxes, these cuts and failures to make appropriations will further impair and imperil state and local revenues.

"Thousands of taxpayers' returns will go unaudited and unchecked. As a consequence, somewhere between $o,000,000 and $10,000,000 in revenue will be lost by our state and local governments during the biennium.

"These figures are conservatively estimated upon the basis of actual departmental experience in previous years."

Glander said the latest discharges brought to 68 the number dropped since Jan. 1, 1949, for lack of funds.

The state tax commissioner pointed out the 1949 legislature cut his department's personal service fund 9.25 per cent. Other departments received a maximum of 3.5 per cent cut.

"Moreover," Glander continued, "no funds whatever were appropriated to continue the personal property tax compliance program. During the 18 months of the last biennium that program produced an extra $3,049,882 for local governments at a cost to the state of but $141,647, or $21.53 for each $1 spent by the state.

"Likewise, no funds whatever were appropriated to process the 32,000 additional personal property and corporation franchise tax returns that were filed with the department this year."

Glander agreed the overall spending program of the state should be reduced but he said "revenue-raising department of government should not be dealt with more severely than the tax-spending departments."

The "government is tragically deficient in providing uniform treatment of taxpayers, and in obtaining full productivity from existing taxes," the commissioner wrote.

"Most people pay their taxes in full and on time. They should not also be required to carry the burden for their neighbors or competitors who evade taxes," he continued. "Any impairment of the functions of the department of taxation directly benefits the tax dodgers at the expense of Ohio individuals and businesses who do pay their taxes."

Friday Admits Refusal To Turn Bonds Over To Father's Estate

City Detective F. Bruce Friday, named in an equity action brought by his brother, John William Friday, of 78 Helen avenue, yesterday filed an answer, admitting some of the allegations, but denying most of them in his brother's petition. He asks that the petition be dismissed.

The brother filed the petition seeking to have $6,800 in U. S. Treasury bonds turned over to the estate of their father, the late Jacob Friday. F. Bruce Friday admits that he has the bonds and that he refuses to turn them or the proceeds over to the estate for distribution.

The defendant admits that the estate was to be divided equally among the children, that their father placed an order with a bank for the bonds, and that the bonds were made out to "Jacob Friday or F. Bruce Friday."

However, F. Bruce Friday denies the other allegations in asking the court to dismiss the action. His attorney is James W. Galbraith.

The administrator of the estate, the Citizens National Bank and Trust company, also named a defendant in the action, has denied most of the chrages. The bank is represented by Attorneys Anderson, Will ~ and O'Donnell.

Sees Blood Bank As 'Insurance'

Wolford Tells Why Donors Are Needed

The donation of blood through the Red Cross was likened to a savings account or an insurance policy by Richard Wolford, Red Cross recruitment chairman, in a talk to the Exchange club yesterday at the Mansfield-Leland hotel.

"Persons with ample income will put some money away in a savings account or in an insurance policy for a rainy day. If they expect to have blood available for a transfusion when they need it — they must donate blood now so that it will be available when it is needed," Wolford said.

"The Red Cross took the job of collecting blood after the war so that there would be blood available for everyone through the blood bank. There is no charge for this blood, except for the typing and administering done by hospital personnel. Before the blood bank was originated, professional donors charged $35 for a pint of blood," Wolford added.

He said that only one person out of every 20 solicited would be asked to give blood on each visit of the bloodmobile from Columbus. The bloodmobile visits Mansfield every five weeks. The unit will be here again on Aug. 15 and 16.

Dr. John J. Clark, who was introduced by Wolford, described the numerous important functions of blood such as distributing oxygen through the body and the fighting of infections by the white blood cells.

"The surplus supply of blood plasma donated during the war was used up by the three Mansfield hospitals three or four weeks ago. Since that time we have been hard pressed to keep an adequate supply available," Dr. Clark said.

William H. Kerruish announced that Maj. Gen. Thomas J. Hanley will present the trophies to the winners of the Exchange club's second annual model airplane meet on Aug. 21.

Flag Pole Sitters Chat

Conduct 'Lofty' Conversation

REVERE, Mass. — (INS) Said the gentleman on the flag pole in Cleveland to the lady on the flag pole in Revere:

"I hope your husbands finds a house for you."

Replied she:

"Thanks, and I'll be rooting for the Cleveland Indians."

And that wound up a more or less epic telephone conversation today between the nation's No. 1 and No. 2 flag pole sitters.

The gentleman in Cleveland is Charles Lupica, who climbed his pole 63 days ago and said he'd stay there until the Cleveland Indians, 1948 world champions of baseball, got into first place in the American league where he figures the champion belongs. (They're in second place right now.)

The lady in Revere is Mrs. Jean Ellis, 24, easy to look at housewife, who went up to her perch 19 days ago to protest the lack of adequate housing for herself, her husband, and daughter, Sharon, 4.

What do flag pole sitters talk about? Well, Charlie made a date with Mrs. Ellis. He said:

"I want to meet you some day when I get off this thing here. Don't forget we have a date. You leave your husband home and I'll leave my wife home."

Mrs. Ellis replied, "Okay, that's fine.'

Then Charlie got cold feet. He added: "Aw, you can take your husband along if you want to."

Both agreed it was hard to sleep on poles in spite of air-filled rubber mattresses. And both agreed it was tough taking sponge baths out of a bucket. But most of their conversation was quite ordinary.

They talked about the weather.

Ford Confirmed As Postmaster

NOW MANSFIELD is to have a "postmaster" again, after having struggled through almost four years of requirement for tacking on the word, "acting," in numerous references to the occupant of that important post.

Senate confirmation of the appointment of Curtis L. Ford to the Mansfield postmastership, seems no more than routine procedure, as Mr. Ford's qualifications for the job were well established by the quite thorough civil service checkup conducted by field examiners more than a year ago.

It may be said for Mr. Ford that he has been a conscientious and capable worker during his period of service as acting postmaster and that he has gained experience which will prove valuable in his future conduct of the office.

Expansion of Mansfield's postal service is reflected in the modern trend toward establishing substations for the convenience of residents of various sections of the city—with five such stations now in operation here.

The government has also purchased land to the east of the present postoffice building, with a view to enlargement to provide space for immediate and future needs, and this is expected to come along in due course.

Parked Autos Attract Thieves

SHORTAGE of garage space and supervised parking lots in Mansfield presents the added danger of theft from automobiles parked on streets, as evidenced by the frequency with which cars have been looted in recent weeks.

While a locked car tends to discourage youthful depredations, many cars have been entered by prying open or breaking a ventilator window, indicating greater experience in such jobs.

This is a matter in which display of public interest can be made cooperative with police activity, as an obvious prowler in the vicinity of parked cars can be easily detected by passersby and a tip-off given to the police department.

It is noted that out-of-state tourists, stopping in Mansfield for a night, have been among victims of thefts from cars, and lack of indoor parking facilities probably explains why so many transient cars are left on streets over night, as most tourists prefer the greater safety of a public garage—if one can be found.

The suggestion is commonly offered that ignition keys should be removed from parked cars; windows closed and doors locked, but even these precautions appear insufficient, and as an added safeguard it appears advisable to leave nothing of value in a parked car.

Moderate-Priced Homes Needed

AN ENCOURAGING "sign of the times" is that would-be home owners are less willing to pay an outlandish price for residence property—old or new—than they were two or three years ago.

Complaint that financial institutions have been loaning too cautiously on properties offered for sale at inflated prices really reflects credit on lending agencies, which are charged with responsibility for the safe investment of deposits.

There has been inclination, on the part of some people driven to desperation by need of living quarters, to contract for the purchase of a property at a price much in excess of anticipated ability to pay, and this entails not only danger of bankruptcy for the buyer but likelihood of loss on the loan.

It cannot be doubted that prospective buyers still outnumber houses available at reasonable prices—and this unbalance cannot be corrected until more well-built houses of moderate family size become available in the $5,000 to $8,000 price range.

Employes Boost Their Product

LOYALTY can be expressed in a variety of ways and can have many applications. One example, for instance, is seen in what is called a "Sell Your Own Products" activity by employes of the Mansfield Tire & Rubber company, which recognizes the close association of production and distribution of industrial output.

Suggestions are offered as to various ways in which employes can influence purchase of their products and emphasis is now being placed on added opportunities to "put in a good word" for Mansfield tires during vacation trips.

This follows the general idea of using and boosting home town products and of patronizing local stores—and more widespread adoption of the idea of industrial workers in production lines also lending their influence to the distribution end of the business would surely have beneficial results

Alaska Turns To 'Liquid Gold'

THERE probably will be no rush that will recall the Klondike days, but current mineral discoveries in Alaska may be as significant to the future of that land as was the discovery of gold in its day. Now it is liquid gold—petroleum and natural gas—that holds the attention of prospectors.

The prospecting is being done by the Navy, which has been at it five years. It now has announced that deposits of oil and gas are "far more widespread" than had been expected. Substantial quantities of these fuels would help to meet two of the great problems of Alaskan development, cold and transportation. Discoveries now being made might be the turning point in Alaskan history.

An observer inquires: "Why is justice so swift in pursuit of an overtime parker and so leisurely in search of a liquor or gambling law violator?"

One of the continuing phenomena of modern times is that other people never think of the housewife as having a full-time job.

Washington Calling

What About Aiding Tito?

By MARQUIS CHILDS

TO ENABLE Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia to go on standing up to the Soviet Union is a major objective of the United States and Great Britain in eastern Europe.

So long as Tito is off the communist reservation — and his war with the cominform is growing hotter — Russia is hampered in her plans to consolidate the military and economic resources of the Soviet sphere. Obviously, the chances for peace are thereby increased.

This policy has been the source of a closely guarded controversy at the highest level here in Washington. It came about as a result of Yugoslavia's application for a license to purchase a steel rolling mill in this country.

Shortly before he went on a brief visit to Yugoslavia, Ambassador Sava N. Kosanovich was told that the necessary export license would be issued. That was based on the conviction of experts in both the state and commerce departments that it was a "calculated risk" in the interests of peace.

Steel engineers of the New York firm of H. A. Brassert were already in Belgrade making a survey and British engineers are also at work. While terms of payment had not been worked out, the hope was that this could be negotiated on a basis of private trade since Yugoslavia is sending to this country increasing shipments of lead, copper and other minerals.

* * *

Difference In Views.

ALL THIS appears to have been premature, since in a late phase of the discussions Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson asserted himself. As he has done in several instances, he stepped into what had been considered up to that point a matter of foreign policy.

Johnson was opposed to permitting Yugoslavia to buy and import the steel mill. Yugoslavia, he said with characteristic finality, was behind the Iron Curtain, and that was enough for him.

Finally, Secretary of State Dean Acheson, with experts from state and commerce, met Johnson to argue it out. According to some of those present, it was an extraordinary session.

Johnson is reported to have made the flat statement that the proposed mill would increase the steel capacity of Russia and the satellites by five percent. To those in the commerce department familiar with steel production this was a startling statement. Soviet Russia today can produce annually an estimated 17,000,000 metric tons and the satellites, exclusive of Yugoslavia, perhaps another 9,000,000 tons.

The expert license sought by Yugoslavia calls for an expenditure of about $3,000,000 over-all. A mill of that size, as the experts figured it, would certainly not add five percent to the steel potential of eastern Europe.

Other startling statements in a different vein are attributed to Johnson. He is said to have threatened to carry the issue to the White House with stress on the political implications for 1952 of such a concession to an Iron Curtain country.

In skilled and lawyer-like fashion Acheson argued the case for strengthening Tito so that Yugoslavia can resist the tightening cord of economic blockade applied under Russian orders by all the satellites.

While that blockade is causing some economic hardship, it has not seriously weakened the regime of Marshal Tito. It has, however, delayed the grandiose plans for industrialization Tito has orated about.

This, it seems to me, is a question in which sentiment and emotion should enter as little as possible. If, as a purely practical matter, Tito can be sustained then Russia's position in Europe is weakened. To deny Tito even this small lifeline will make the Kremlin rejoice.

Aspire To World Union

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WASHINGTON — A very encouraging development here is the way many recognized leaders of both parties in Congress have capitalized ratification of the Atlantic Pact as a starting point for a movement for some sort of world union or world government.

This is a healthy recognition of the fact that the pact is negative and defensive. It is just that. It is merely another in a series of such defensive measures that began with the Truman Doctrine for Greece and Turkey, proceeded through the Marshall Plan and the Atlantic Pact and ultimately envisages arms aid for western Europe. Many senators swallowed the Atlantic Pact with gulps of guilty conscience and are hesitant about arms aid and its extent.

They, along with many House members, realize that we must assume the leadership in a positive way now that we have taken measures to secure ourselves and western Europe by these devices.

They are stop-gap at best. They must be welded into a permanent, positive program.

This explains the sudden burst of support for three separate resolutions presented jointly to House and Senate which aim at eventual world government to be developed within the United Nations, but stronger and more effective than the UN.

The methods proposed are different. But it is not this difference that is important. What is important is that nearly half of the Senate and over a fourth of the House are publicly committed to one or other of these approaches to a strong world union. The differences can be resolved.

It is suggested that a wise next step would be to hold hearings by House and Senate foreign affairs committees, perhaps jointly, on these and any other proposals. That would provide for an expression of public opinion.

From such a laboratory could come a single resolution that could get general support in Congress as an expression of a recommended course of policy for the President and state department. That was the procedure followed in connection with resolutions adopted by Congress that opened the way for creation of the United Nations, itself.

* * *

Common Purpose Seen.

EARLIEST of the current crop of resolutions looking to the next step was that sponsored by united world federalists. It would express the feeling of Congress that a fundamental objective of our foreign policy should be to support and strengthen the UN into a world federation with common world law and means to enforce it.

Introduced in the House a few weeks ago by Rep. Brooks Hays (D., Ark.) it now has 103 publicly avowed House supporters. Eighteen senators joined in introducing the identical resolution in the Senate after ratification of the Atlantic Pact.

One of the other two resolutions is tied directly to the Atlantic Pact.

It is sponsored by the Atlantic Union committee, of which former Justice Owen J. Roberts is president. It would ask the President to call a convention of the six original sponsors of the Atlantic Pact — our country, Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Luxembourg — and other democratic nations they might want to invite.

This convention would then seek to draft a constitution of union setting up a common parliament and code of law which would envisage common defense, exchange, and other requirements, subject to ratification by the participating nations.

Once established, this union could handle on a mutual basis the various problems, finance economic, defense, now being handled on a piece-meal basis and, beyond that, could become the nucleus of a world union into which other nations might enter. This resolution was introduced jointly by 18 Senators and four House members, though the support of many more House members is claimed.

Mundt Proposes Aiding Small Business

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Those who have long watched the Washington run-around feel that South Dakota's Senator Karl Mundt has come up with the best proposal yet to avoid inside lobbying and help the little business man. Mundt, who knows his Washington well, proposed to establish a government information bureau to give businessmen all data regarding government contracts.

If properly organized, this could be a great boon to all business. The average firm cannot afford to employ a special representative to sit in Washington, therefore loses out to big firms that do.

General Motors long has operated one of the most efficient offices in Washington, entertains Army-Navy officers, knows pretty much what the government is buying. Studebaker, Douglas Aircraft, Pan American Airways, TWA, and many other big firms have done the same. Furthermore, they deduct their costs from income taxes, so Uncle Sam foots much of the bill.

That's why the average business firm is left out in the cold, partly why only six American firms got 60 per cent of the government's war contracts.

Senator Mundt, realizing this, has proposed an information bureau which could usher in a new era for little business.

Making An Attorney General.

SMALL incidents in the lives of men sometimes become turning points in history. One incident that turned the life of Sen. J. Howard McGrath, newly designated attorney general, was a torchlight parade in Rhode Island 20 years ago.

The parade was staged by Harry Storin of Keith's theater in honor of actor Eddie Dowling, a native son who was returning to Thode Island to play "Honeymoon Lane." Young McGrath, a budding politician, was in the parade, got to know Dowling.

Later, when Roosevelt entered the White House, he bitterly disliked Rhode Island's Senator Peter Gerry, handed the state's patronage over to his old friend, Eddie Dowling. Dowling, unfamiliar with politics, passed it on to Howard McGrath.

That gave McGrath his big political start. He ran for state attorney general, then for governor, and while serving as governor was offered the post of solicitor general in the justice department. Truman had first offered this office — which presents government cases to the Supreme Court — to Gov. Ellis Arnall of Georgia. Arnall turned it down.

At that time, Truman's chances of being re-elected were considered nil. However, Governor McGrath accepted the job on the second bounce, even left the governorship to take it. From there, he went on to the Senate, now to the cabinet. If he had declined the solicitor generalship, he would never be where he is today.

Bitter Byrd Battle.

ONE of the most important primary elections of the year takes place in Virginia today. It's importance lies in the possibility that, following the defeat of Boss Hague in Jersey City and Tammany by FDR, jr., today may see the downfall of another machine — that of Sen. Harry E. Byrd.

So serious is the fight that Byrd's colleague in the Senate, Willis Robertson, tactfully objects to being labeled part of the "Byrd machine." He is afraid that eventually he might go down with it.

Byrd's candidate for governor, John S. Battle, has the distinction of co-authoring last year's bill to deprive President Truman of Virginia's vote in the electoral college even if he won the popular vote. Three Democrats are in the gubernatorial race against him.

How desperate the Byrd forces are is indicated by their efforts to take one of the candidates, Remmie Arnold, out of the race. A prosperous pen manufacturer, Arnold has just started in politics, believes that businessmen shouldn't merely complain about bad government but should do something to improve government.

After speaking in Rocky Mount, Va., not long ago, Arnold dropped in at a restaurant, there met state treasurer Jesse Dillon and Brady Almond, both ardent Byrd henchmen.

"You fellows don't labor under the illusion that any of you have a chance of winning, do you?" challenged Dillon. "Because you haven't."

"No, you haven't got a chance," continued Almond, waving a wad of greenbacks in front of Arnold's nose, "because you haven't got this kind of stuff on election day."

Merry-Go-Round.

BOB REYNOLDS, noisy isolationist ex-senator from North Carolina, is talking about running for the Senate against quiet, dignified Clyde Hoey. He wouldn't have a chance. . .Sen. Bert Miller, Idaho Democrat, has hired a Republican to run his office — his brother, John Miller. John has been on Capitol Hill for several years, has worked for three Republican congressmen, is an efficient administrator. . .Senators have a secret agreement with the official reporters to cut down on dull, windy speeches. A copy of the speech is sent to the reporters in advance, then the senator quietly skips several inside pages in reading the speech. But the reporters, who have the full text, dutifully record the whole thing. . .Congressional leaders have informed the President there is no hope for enactment of the social security extension bill this session. The house will pass legislation calling for extension of social-security benefits to about 10,000,000 additional employes, plus increased old-age assistance and retirement benefits, but the Senate won't have time to consider it.

When Does 'Life Begin'?

By INEZ ROBB

NEW YORK — Life may begin at forty but it really starts rolling in high gear at around three score and ten.

The most flagrant bit of larceny on Broadway is committed eight times weekly by a woman of some seventy summers.

The larcenous lady is Miss Ethel Griffies, who will probably never see seventy again and who made her first stage appearance when she was two and a half. She not only swipes the new musical comedy "Miss Liberty" right out from under its youthful feminine stars, Mary McCarty and Allyn McLerie, but she has compounded the felony by becoming the current toast of Broadway.

Just exactly how old is Miss Griffies, who sings and capers through "Miss Liberty," nobody knows — and the lady herself ain't talkin'.

"It's not my vanity, my dear, it's just that my age is my own business." Miss Griffies said with a sly smile as we sat in the drawing room of the mid-town hotel apartment where she makes her home with her actor husband, Edward Cooper.

In "Miss Liberty," this English-born actress plays the most raffish, thoroughly disreputable old harridan that Broadway has seen in years. And plays it to the hilt.

No matter how dubious the critics may have been about other facets of the Robert Sherwood-Irving Berlin-Moss Hart musical, they agreed as one that she stole the show and is slightly wonderful.

How does it feel, I asked her, to be the belle of Broadway at—well—at three score and ten.

"It's very nice," she said placidly, "but at my age, there's no future in it."

Then she laughed the deep, rowdy laugh with which she fills the theater nightly and added:

"At my age, you don't have much future left."

Before I went to call on Miss Griffies, I had never seen her except on the stage. I had no idea what she would be like, but I rather feared a bottle blonde, with a half-nelson on perennial youth and bleached curls.

* * *

Deferred Retirement.

I COULDN'T have been wronger. The shameless scene stealer of "Miss Liberty" has gray — almost white — hair, cut rather short and innocent of beauty-parlor kinks. The fact is, Miss Griffies looks her age, whatever that is. And is quite content to be it.

She was dressed in dowager black, in a cut that would have done credit to Queen Mary, her slim feet elegantly encased in black suede pumps with handsome steel cut buckles.

"Miss Liberty" is the first musical she has adorned in 42 years. In that interim, she has been a featured player on anglo-American stages and in 100 Hollywood movies.

After seventeen years and 100 movies in Hollywood, Miss Griffies announced her retirement two years ago and resolutely shipped all the Griffies-Cooper goods and gear back to Liverpool.

Fortunately for Broadway, she and Mr. Cooper stopped in New York for a final look and she was immediately offered a role in John Van Druten's "The Druid Circle." Since then, offers have showered down on her, and retirement grows dimmer and dimmer.

"If 'Miss Liberty' has a good run — say two years — I might retire then," she said. "But if it just runs a season, I think I'd like to do one more play."

The stage-door-Johnny of her youth, "a man-about-town who had both money and leisure," has disappeared, Miss Griffies added.

"There is neither money nor leisure any more," she continued, "and the stage-door-Johnny has been replaced by strange young persons who want my autograph on untidy slips of paper, for no known reason."

Frankly Speaking

Delay Follows Delay

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — Delayed doings during dreary days let legislators' lawmaking linger.

That sums up what's been happening to the Marshall Plan in this slow-paced, unexciting session of Congress.

More than a year ago President Truman laid the plan in Congress' lap to help Europe recover from the war. And last year Congress approved it and voted money to keep it going one year. But it's a four-year plan.

So, for each of the four years it must come before Congress, which then has to decide to:

1. Kill it altogether, instead of letting it run the full four years. (That's not going to happen this year.)

2. Or, approve it for another year and vote money for it for another year, suiting itself on how much money it votes.

In Congress there's a big difference between approving (authorizing) something and voting money (appropriating) for it.

They're two separate actions. Congress may authorize something but not get around to appropriating for it for weeks or months.

So this year the plan came up in Congress again. In April the House and Senate authorized it for one year more.

That was in the spring and Mr. Truman had asked Congress to appropriate $4,200,000,000 for it for another year.

* * *

Just Back and Forth.

DAWDLING along with other stuff, Congress didn't get around to appropriating money for the plan till this summer.

The House acted in June on that but decided Mr. Truman was asking too much and trimmed the total.

Then it was the Senate's turn since there couldn't be any appropriation at all unless the Senate also voted money and both Houses were in agreement on how much. But—

Before the Senate could vote, it had to have an appropriations bill outlining how the money was to be spent.

It's the job of the Senate's appropriations committee to prepare the bill. This it did.

But it also thought the President was asking too much. Like the House, it decided the total should be chopped.

But the Senate appropriations committee went a step further. It wrote these instructions into the bill before sending it up to the Senate for a vote:

One billion, 800 million dollars of the total money (including that for occupied areas), should be used for buying surplus American crops—like tobacco, cotton, wheat, dairy stuff—to send to Europe.

This brought a steaming argument last week when the Senate got around to voting appropriations for the plan.

Some senators argued the surplus crop idea was meant to give "farm relief" to American farmers instead of really helping Europe. They argued whether the surplus crop provision had any place in the bill at all.

Finally, Vice President Barkley ruled it shouldn't be there. So—

The appropriations bill had to go back to the appropriations committee to be fixed up all over again so it could be sent up to the Senate again to be chewed over and voted upon.

Dave Boone Says:

THE FEARS in political circles that an outstanding jurist, with long and distinguished years of service on the bench, may some day be named to the Supreme Court seem groundless.

* * *

A man can't get there any more—if he has spent his life getting the necessary training, experience and judgment.

* * *

What they require there now is a young fellow who dresses well, has a lot of friends, and has the vigor to get into those photo finishes or five-to-four decisions without wilting in the stretch runs.

* * *

Tom Clark has all the lack of experience on a high court bench that is required these days. But he's had plenty of experience as a prosecutor. It will be wonderful if he can get some of those justices to answer "Yes" or "No" on a given issue—instead of their going into long arguments that mix up folks more than ever on the law of the land.

MANSFIELD GIRL WED TO CLEVELAND HEIGHTS MAN

Miss Jeanne Worley, 462 Park Avenue West, Exchanges Vows With Daniel Houck Baker

BEFORE A BACKGROUND of two beauty baskets of pastel gladioli, ferns, palms and altar vases of gladioli, Miss Jeanne Elouise Worley became the bride of Daniel Houck Baker, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the South Main Street Evangelical United Brethren church. The Rev. Willard Shawk officiated for the double ring, closed church service.

Miss Worley is the daughter of Ralph W. Worley, 462 Park avenue west and Mr. Baker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving M. Baker, 3889 Grosvenor road, Cleveland Heights.

Miss Pauline Statler presided at the organ for the half-hour recital of nuptial music which preceded the ceremony, and Mrs. Geraldine Freeman was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta floor-length gown. It was fashioned with a high round neckline and cap sleeves. The tight-fitting bodice came to tiny tucks over the hipline and fell into a full skirt. She wore a fingertip French illusion veil held in place by a crowd of seed pearls and Chantilly lace. Three quarter length Chantilly mitts came to points over the hands. The only jewelry worn by the bride was a single strang of pearls.

Miss Worley carried a white lace fan with an arrangement of white shattered carnations, white roses and a white orchid.

Miss Viola M. Salsgiver of Richmond, Virginia, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant. She was attired in a taffeta floor length gown of aqua. It was fashioned similar to that of the bride's dress. She wore matching lace aqua mitts. In her hair a wreath of pink rosebuds was worn. Pink Rubrum lilies arranged on a pink lace fan was carried by the attendant.

Mrs. Baker was attired in a pale blue dress with white accessories. She wore a pink rosebud corsage.

William G. Heim, Poland, Ohio, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Guests were escorted to their pews by Glenn F. Heinles, of Columbus, and David P. Sawyer, Vero Beach, Florida.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 125 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The four tiered wedding cake centered the table which was appointed in pink and white. Arrangements of summer garden flowers were placed throughout the home.

For their honeymoon to Canada and the middle eastern states, the new Mrs. Baker wore a navy summer suit with white accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return, August 12, they will reside at 462 Park avenue west.

Mrs. Baker is a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school and Wittenberg college where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta and Sigma Alpha Iota, music honorary. She is an active member of Delta Theta chapter, Delta Theta Tau sorority.

Mr. Baker, a graduate of Cleveland Heights high school, received his B. S. degree in education from Ohio State University. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, Phi Mu Alpha and Kappa Kappa Psi, music horonaries.

The bride is instructor in music at Johnny Appleseed Junior high school. Mr. Baker is a student at the graduate school at Ohio State University.

Out-of-town guests present at the ceremony were in attendance from Cleveland, Chillicothe, Youngstown, Columbus, Butler, Bellville, Perrysville and Athens, Ohio.

Looking Through . . .

The Fashion Spy Glass

Most of the stores are too busy winding up their summer stock to start bombarding us weary women with the new fall line. But we were so eager to rush the season that we seized the first rack of fall cloths to appear and hereby report.

As you already know, the fabrics are corduroy, wool jersey and tweed with a nice sprinkling of velveteen and gabardine for flavor.

One piece knitted dresses are also rearing their pretty heads and we saw one model that rates specific mention. It comes in black with a wide cocoa strip across the bodice or dark green with an orange stripe. A high peter pan collar and long sleeves are featured leaving the contrasting stripe to relieve the simplicity. If you'r tall and thin, this is your number.

Big rough fabric tweed coats with scotch plaid wool scarves attached to the collars are our bid for the campus coat of 1949. You can have the coat in green or brown tweed with the bright scarves picking up the dominant color. Besides being very stylish, these coats look mighty warm.

If you're wondering about a corduroy suit, here's our suggestion. Get a neutral colored sport jacket and a matching separate skirt, instead of a suit. Then you have a neat suit, an extra skirt and a sport jacket.

It will cost more than a suit but your jacket and skirt will be far more interchangeable this way. Be sure your jacket is lined. You'll find out that it's almost impossible to wear out a good quality lined corduroy jacket.

Your corduroy suit skirt will be very plain, whereas your separate skirt will have a lot of style to it, via pockets, flare, etc. We are sure that your separates will far outlast your suit.

THURSDAY WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Karas, 345 North Townview circle, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Frances Ann, to Roger Vernard Coe, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Coe, 35 Brickman avenue. The nuptial vows will be exchanged Thursday morning at 9 30 o'clock in the rectory of St. Peter's Catholic church. The Rev. Father Joseph O'Leary will officiate for the ceremony which will be attended by only the immediate families. Miss Karas is a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school and employed at the Farmers Savings and Trust company. Mr. Coe, also a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school, is employed as a gardener.

Schedule of Coming Events

WEDNESDAY

Evening Guild of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church — guest picnic at South park. Executive committee will be hostesses.

Liberty Park Ladies auxiliary — regular session; Mrs. George Marshall, chairman.

Rev. Melchert Officiates For Informal Ceremony

Miss Lillian M. Berry, 263 Home avenue, became the bride of Delwin C. Dorman, of Alliance, Saturday, in an informal, double ring service at St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church.

Rev. John Melchert officiated at 11 o'clock. The bride was attired in a white suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beatty, of Alliance, attended the couple.

Following the ceremony a dinner for the wedding party was held at the home of Mrs. Clara Ritter, 46 Wise avenue.

Mrs. Dorman is a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school. The couple are both graduates of Great Lakes college, Cleveland. The bride is an employe of Weimer's Figure Perfection studio. Mr. Dorman practices masso-therapy in Alliance.

The couple travelled to Pittsburgh, Pa. for their wedding trip.

During the first two weeks of August the Women's club, Park avenue west, will be open. Dinner will be served on Wednesday evenings.

HOSTESS CHANGED

The Agnes Paulsen garden club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frend Boals, 808 Arlington avenue, instead of the previously announced meeting place.

Fourth Annual Reunion Held

The fourth annual reunion of the Newlon family was held Sunday at Liberty park pavilion with thirty-two in attendance.

Officers elected for the coming year were Tom O'Donell jr., president, and Rita Newlon, secretary - treasurer. Plans were made for the 1950 reunion which will be held on the third Sunday in August.

The afternoon was spent socially. Members of the family were present from Shelby and Mansfield. A Christmas party is to be held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, Shelby.

NOW! Dental Science Reveals a Startling Discovery in the Fight Against Tooth Decay

PROOF THAT BRUSHING TEETH RIGHT AFTER EATING IS THE SAFE, EFFECTIVE WAY TO

HELP STOP TOOTH DECAY

with Colgate Dental Cream

X-RAYS SHOW HOW PROPER USE OF COLGATE'S HELPS STOP TOOTH DECAY!

Eminent dental authorities supervised 2 groups of college men and women for over a year. One group always brushed their teeth with Colgate's right after eating. The other group followed usual dental care. X-rays were taken at regular intervals.

The average of the group using Colgate Dental Cream as directed was a startling reduction in number of cavities —far less tooth decay! The other group developed new cavities at a much higher rate!

Regular visits to your dentist are necessary for complete dental care. No home method can help everyone, nor can it stop all tooth decay or help cavities already started!

NO OTHER DENTIFRICE OFFERS PROOF OF THESE RESULTS

The Most Important News in Dental History! Exhaustive Research on Hundreds of People by Eminent Dental Authorities Proves How Using Colgate Dental Cream Helps Stop Tooth Decay Before It Starts!

NOW dental science offers scientific proof that brushing teeth with Colgate Dental Cream right after eating is an effective, safe way to help prevent new cavities, greatly reduce tooth decay!

More than a year's continuous research—hundreds of case histories—makes this the most important news in dental history!

For now—the same toothpaste you use to clean your breath while you clean your teeth—offers a safe, proved way to reduce tooth decay!

Colgate's is Safe—Not An Experimental Formula!

Colgate Dental Cream has been proved to contain all the necessary ingredients—including an exclusive patented ingredient—for effective daily dental care. No risk of irritation to tissues and gums!

The Colgate Dental Cream now at your dealer's is the same formula that was used in the tests.

You can use Colgate's with confidence. And using it as directed is a safe, proved way to avoid needless cavities—actually help stop tooth decay at home!

To The Dental Profession

The research described here was conducted in leading dental clinics under the supervision of some of America's foremost dental research authorities.

A detailed report of the tests is now in preparation and will be available for your use and study in the near future. If you wish a copy, send your request on your own professional letterhead to Colgate, Jersey City 2, N. J.

These studies represent the most exhaustive evidence ever offered to the dental profession of actual reduction of cavities. They present scientific proof that always brushing teeth right after eating is one of the most effective ways yet known to help stop tooth decay before it starts. And Colgate Dental Cream is the only dentifrice that can prove the statements reported here.

NO CHANGE IN FLAVOR, FOAM, OR CLEANSING ACTION!

Millions know that Colgate Dental Cream cleans their breath while it cleans their teeth. That its wonderful wake-up flavor is preferred over all other dentifrices tested. That no other toothpaste does a better job of cleaning teeth. And there has been no change in Colgate's famous flavor—its marvelous foaming quality—or its safe and thorough cleansing action!

Mothers! Children Love Colgate's Flavor! It's Easy to Start Them On The Colgate Way To Reduce Tooth Decay!

9 out of 10 children have one or more decayed teeth by the time they enter school. So don't wait another day to start your children on Colgate Dental Cream. Teach them the importance of always brushing their teeth right after meals or snacks. They'll love Colgate's flavor—so it's easy to get them to use Colgate's correctly, give them all the benefits of this safe, proved way to reduce tooth decay!

THERE IS ONLY ONE COLGATE DENTAL CREAM!

YOUR DEALER HAS IT NOW—IN THE SAME FAMILIAR PACKAGE

Always use Colgate's* to Clean Your Breath While You Clean Your Teeth and HELP STOP TOOTH DECAY!

* Right after eating

Explains Nightmare In Child

By GARRY MYERS, Ph. D.

Night terrors in the child are born by day and nurtured chiefly during his waking hours. Though they may be set off by some physical cause, their expression almost surely reveals earlier hours, days or months of emotional frustrations.

Of her grandson, five, a correspondent states: "Every few nights he has bad nightmares, sometimes wandering around then again screaming and crying, when you can't reason with him. He seems to be awake and keeps mumbling wondering if his daddy loves him, etc. I would say they are very patient and reasonable with the child. He has sisters three years old and three months old and they all play outside every day it is fit. Lots of playmates, some three or four years older than the boy. Would you suggest he be kept out of kindergarten this fall?"

In part, here was my reply. It may be that for him to go to kindergarten would be good for him. It might make him feel more important in relation to the younger children and would put him in contact with other children of his own age. Keep in touch with your physician after he enters school and if this physician advises an occasional quiet day at home or even some weeks, follow his advice. Those older playmates now may stimulate him too much for competition or may lord it over him. Almost surely this lad feels he does not rate quite so well in the family as his little sisters do. See that these sisters do not mess up his things and that he gets more attention relatively from his parents, relatives and neighbors. (My related bulletins, "Jealousy," "The Nervous Child," and "Your Child and His Playmates" may be had in a stamped envelope sent me in care of this paper.)

FUN WITH DAD

Dad could do much for this lad by spending more time with him, reading to him, making things with him, going places with him (only) and setting the stage for fun by him with several other children of about his age.

This lad needs lots of affection. He may not want it shown in fondling (though if he does he should be fondled abundantly). Express much affection in more enduring ways through answering all his questions kindly, listening raptly and with relaxation and enjoyment to what he wishes to tell you, wholeheartedly appreciating his creations and inventions, with crayons, even with his yarns of fantasy. It is wonderful if he often makes up yarns Dad and other persons enjoy and if Dad, Mother or Grandmother also spin stories out of the head for his amusement.

You adults all can do much for this boy by working on yourselves. Be sure he does not have conflicting bosses and that his management is with the least possible annoyance to all concerned. He needs to have a relaxed, serene, congenial family atmosphere where voices are low-pitched and soft and the radio rarely on, especially at mealtime. Expose him to smiles and laughter and stimulate smiles in him. When he feels happier and more secure by day he will have fewer ugly dreams by night and his nightmares should eventually disappear.

SUMMER FRIEND—Tall, dark and flavorsome, iced coffee is everybody's favorite hot-weather beverage. And no wonder! There isn't a better summer refresher for parched palates. Serve it in frosty glasses filled to the brim with ice, adding simple syrup or sugar and cream to taste.

HOROSCOPE

For Wednesday, August 3
By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

Affairs may be strenuous, moving with dynamic force to strange and uncertain grooves. The unexpected may be uppermost in novel and untried ways taxing ingenuity and skill. In constructive work, in which innovation may win out against critical situations probable upheaval. Such crisis may effect personal and romantic ties.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may be called upon to act quickly and dynamically in order to take advantage of exceptional opening, in which innovation, originality and serious constructive thinking may win against suddenly precipitated situations. It could be easy to jump at conclusions, disruptive and regrettable, affecting private, domestic and romantic conditions as well as business interests. Change and breaking up of the status quo seem imminent.

Those whose birthday it is, may be prone to fly into crises, even though the prospects seem easy of solution through studied thought, revised plans and ingenuity.

Stuffed prunes arranged with summer fruits on a luncheon salad platter make big news when they are filled with cottage cheese balls rolled in toasted coconut. Cook the prunes only until tender, then slit them down one side to remove pit. Drop small rounded spoonfuls cottage cheese in the coconut and roll gently until completely coated.

To give pastry a lovely golden-brown color brush the top with cream before baking; this is particularly attractive for a lattice-work pastry topping of a berry pie.

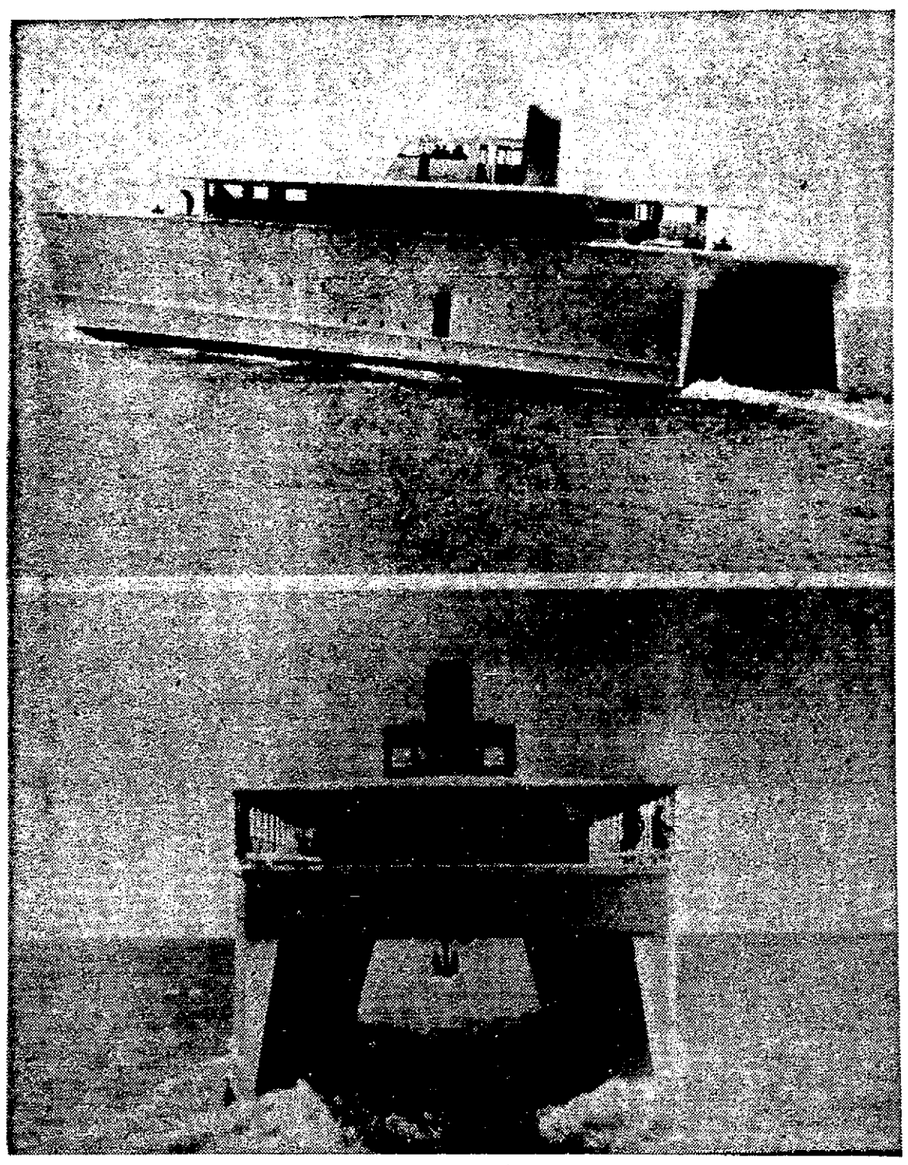
Ship 'Won't Roll'

Wood Designs Twin-Hull Craft



'NO-ROLL' SHIP — Inventor-industrialist Gar Wood has taken the wraps off a secret ship that eventually may make ocean liners like the Queen Mary obsolete.

It's the strange looking craft with twin hulls shown above. She knifes through the waves instead of climbing over them. The retired king of speed-boat racing calls it a prototype of the express passenger liner of tomorrow.

For 28 years Wood has been designing a ship unlike anything that ever before put to sea. He talked publicly for the first time yesterday about his 120-ton experimental craft named the "Venturi."

The ship, which cruises at 26 knots through high waves at a completely even keel without roll or pitch was started as a hush-hush job for the army air forces in 1944. The air forces wanted an extremely mobile radio-controlled target vessel, but the war ended before the AAF secured full value from Wood's ship.

The designer re-acquired the hull from the government and went to work to develop his dream boat.

He said the basic design should permit surface vessels for the first time to compete favorably with trans-ocean airlines.

The Venturi, shown in side view at top and rear view at bottom, is 188 feet long and 40 feet wide. The deck is 22 feet above the water line. Wood says wind rushing through the "tunnel" between the twin hulls buoys up the ship.

Fund Runs Behind

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United Mine Workers' Welfare fund paid out nearly $14,000,000 more than it took in last year, lawmakers were told Monday.

Miss Josephine Roche, fund director, told the senate banking committee that collections for the fiscal year that ended June 30 amount to $90,891,905. This compares with benefit payments of $104,880,785.

But she noted that the fund still is approximately $29,000,000 in the black. This is because some $43,000,000, collected during 1947, was frozen until June 28, 1948, by litigation.

The operators now pay a royalty of 20 cents a ton to the fund. Coal operator witnesses have told the committee they believe John L. Lewis, UMW chieftain, will seek to increase this when he sits down to negotiate a new contract.

The operators' original five-cent contribution was later increased to 10 cents and then to 20 cents. The UMW makes no contribution.

Warn Against Danger In New Static Elimination Devices

LOS ANGELES, — (INS) — New health hazards are finding their way into our everyday lives with science's constant development of more and more useful, but potentially dangerous, radioactive products.

A warning against the indiscriminate use of industrial and household devices using polonium, a highly radioactive material, to eliminate static electricity came today from two University of California at Los Angeles atomic scientists.

They are Dr. Fred Bryan, assistant director, and Louis Silverman of UCLA medical school's atomic energy project. They recently completed an investigation into industrial machines and home appliances using radio-active materials. They reported:

"Such devices produce . . . inhalation hazards by contamination of the air with fine particles containing radioactive polonium . . . the ingestion of minute quantities of polonium may cause serious injury."

They explained polonium devices eliminate static from substances, not by touching or "grounding" them, but by bombarding the surrounding air with atomic particles, forming a conductive layer of ionized air, or an "invisible ground" which carries off the static charge.

The two researchers said:

"There is a definite danger from radioactive particles taken into the body by breathing or hand-to-mouth contact."

WILLYS REPORTS EARNINGS

TOLEDO — (UP) — Willys-Overland Motors Ind., today reported earnings of $2,988,883.12 for the first nine months of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1949.

The State Division of Conservation and Natural Resources will stock the park lakes with fish before the contest so the contestants will have better luck.

A committee of the Lions club will meet Wednesday at 7 p. m., at North Lake park pavilion to work out details of the contest. H. E. Moody and Russell Phipps are co-chairmen of the committee.

Bobby-Soxers Shock Placid Stratford Town

STRATFORD-ON-AVON — (INS) — William Shakespeare's home town settled back into its usual quiet again today in the wake of an American bobby-soxer invasion.

The calm of the tourist mecca was shattered yesterday when vacationing American girls roamed the town in be-bop blouses with dangling shirt-tails and three-quarter length slacks.

High-browed residents of the calm Avon-side village were shocked when Mayor Bert Cooper gallantly defended the teen-age visitors, saying:

"William Shakespeare would have been all in favor of unusual clothing."

July Was Hotter Than Usual—As If You Didn't Know

Mansfielders didn't need statistics to prove that it was hot in July, but the city sewage plant weather station compiled some interesting figures anyway.

Official reports for the month show that the average high and low temperatures and rainfall were considerably above the July marks in 1947 and 1948.

Average high last month was 86 and the low was 70. Rainfall totaled 3.64 inches.

The July, 1948, high was 82 and the low was 62. Rainfall totaled 2.35 inches. In 1947, the July high averaged only 78 and the low was 60. Rainfall then totaled 2.15 inches.

Gabrielson Looms As GOP Chairman

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Backstage compromises appeared today to have cleared away most of the hurdles to the selection this week of Guy George Gabrielson of New Jersey as the new Republican national chairman.

With the GOP national committee meeting Thursday, Gabrielson, 58-year-old lawyer and Asbestos mine owner, seemed to have the field mostly to himself in the race to succeed Rep. Hugh D. Scott jr.. Scott has said he will hand his resignation to the committee.

Despite the heavy rainfall, the weather station recorded only eight cloudy days last month. Cloudy days are the ones in which the sun fails to shine 50 per cent of the time.
